Good News Reflection - The image engraved on our hearts

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, when Jesus asks the Pharisees to tell him whose image was engraved on the coin owed for the census tax, he uses it to teach a lesson about the image that should be engraved upon our hearts. Our hearts should belong to God and to God alone.

The Romans believed that their emperors were divine. Therefore, to possess Roman coins meant carrying around the graven image of a human god. The Pharisees knew this when they challenged Jesus.

Paying the census tax to Caesar symbolized more than just submission to a foreign government. It had religious connotations. If Jesus was a true prophet, he should speak up against Jews possessing pagan coins. If he was a true messiah, he should deliver them from the oppression and taxes of the foreign government -- or so they thought.

We don't know how they happened to have the Roman coin that they showed to Jesus. If they pulled it out of their own purses, which is likely, it revealed their hypocrisy. However, Jesus wasn't just interested in exposing their hypocrisy; he wanted to make a point about the True Messiah.

If we belong to God, Jesus is engraved upon our hearts. We have been rescued from the destruction of sin by the Messiah. We have let him deliver us from the oppression of evil that was caused by our sins.

Whose image do others see when they look at your life? When people see you, do they see Jesus engraved upon you? To the extent that they do, that's the extent to which you belong to the kingdom of God!

Questions for Personal Reflection: How do you know that others see Jesus in your life? What's the evidence? What have they told you about yourself that is also a description of Christ?

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday!

We are called to offer our prayers and generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, for the worldwide mission of Christ. We are asked to reach out to the peripheries, people in remote villages, towns, and cities by using the witness and work of missionaries and local priests. Please keep all missionaries in your daily prayers.

Family Fun Day- All Saints Day Trunk O'Ween

Oct. 31st 4 – 5:30 PM in McKenna Hall Parking Lot. Come dressed as your favorite saint/hero! Face painting! Saints photo booth! To make the “Trunk or treat” in the parking lot possible we ask volunteers to park their vehicle in the parking lot and have candy in the trunk to hand out to the costumed children. Please call/text Leslie @ 861-4032 if you are able to volunteer to bring your vehicle and supply candy.

We have been gifted with so much in our lives; jobs, homes, family, friends, and all of the material trappings of our modern lifestyles. Yet these things in and of themselves cannot bring us the fulfillment and purpose our hearts seek. Jesus tells us this week what really matters; that we appropriately give to God what belongs to God. For we all belong to God and all that we have belongs to Him. It is only in “Giving to God what is God’s”, that we will find true happiness and fulfillment. Let your support of the Archdiocesan Appeal be a well-discerned and responsible act of sacrificial praise, service and worship.

The late Fr. Amorth was the chief exorcist in Rome for decades. This book is his powerful, frightening and eye-opening explanation of Catholic doctrine regarding fallen angels and their manifestations. More than just an orientation to the demonic, Fr. Amorth equips and encourages readers with knowledge on avoiding temptation, the importance of the Sacraments, and the Catholic Church’s spiritual remedies for those afflicted by demonic forces. An exorcist explains the demonic is now available for loan through the St. Vincent de Paul Parish Library.

“Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.”

- Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second.

Welcome Visitors & New Parish Members!

New parishioners are asked to please be sure to fill out a new parishioner form - located in the foyer!
