Good News Reflection - 3 steps for calling others to repentance

This Sunday's readings all speak of the need to stand up for what is holy and right and true in a way that that invites others to turn away from sin. If we don't, we indirectly play a part in the sins he or she commits, and we will be held accountable (see the first reading).

If we do take a stand against sin but without compassion and mercy and unconditional love, that too is a sin (the second reading).

Jesus shows us in the Gospel reading that in our efforts to stop a fellow Christian from sinning, it's important to rely on our Christian community for advocacy and prayer support. How?

First, we speak to the sinner. When we know that someone is harming himself and others (all sins are harmful even when we can't see the harm), if we don't try to impart this knowledge to him or her at least once, our silence is unloving and uncaring.

Once we've shared the truth, even if the sinner does not change, we're free of any guilt. But we must not stop trying, and so we take one or two others with us in a stronger effort to help the sinner understand and repent.

And if that fails, we try again with still more backing.

When every attempt to help someone has failed, only then do we quit. In reality, it's not us who's walking away. The sinner is the one who has chosen the path of separation. However, remember how Jesus treated the Gentiles and tax collectors (i.e., the outsiders, the separated ones): He never stopped loving them. He still chose to die for them.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Whose sins have greatly disturbed you lately? What have you done about it? How loving and caring have you been in handling it?

Congratulations to bursary recipients!

It is our pleasure to congratulate the recipients of this year’s two bursaries.

Cody Vilcu and Carson Colquhoun were chosen from a list of applications. Both are very deserving of these bursaries.

Cody Vilcu has been active in our parish. He was a member of the Grade 5/6 club for two years and continued to attend the 5/6 club as a helper and leader for the next four years. Cody assisted by putting out snacks, gathering supplies, explaining games, activities and prayer as needed. He has led children's liturgy for 5 years and attends mass weekly with his family. Cody is a dedicated member of our parish and will be attending the University of Regina.

Carson Colquhoun and his family have been regular church goers at the Sunday 9am mass. He was a scheduled alter server during his years at elementary and junior high school. He has been and still is a member of one of our hospitality teams. Carson has volunteered at McKenna hall and has been involved with volunteer groups cleaning the church and rectory grounds, cleaning out the rectory and the garage. He has been there to help anytime he has been asked. As a volunteering member of our church from elementary school to present day he is a very deserving recipient of the bursary. Carson will be attending Assiniboine College in Brandon, Manitoba.

Copies of the application form and criteria are available at the Parish office or can be emailed. This applies to anyone currently entering Grade 12. Applicants must be attending a post-secondary institution and have volunteered a minimum of 30 hours within the Parish during their Grade 10 to 12 years.

Rectory Update:

Our Rectory is long overdue for a major renovation. The shingles were recently replaced and the windows will be replaced this fall. We would like to start upgrading the interior in January while Father Francis takes his annual holiday. To facilitate this, we would like to form a Renovation Committee who would oversee the entire process – determining the scope of the renovation, requesting tenders from contractors, and overseeing the work done by licensed contractors. If you are interested in being part of the committee, please leave your information on the sign-up sheet at the back of the church or call the office.

The Rite: The Making of a Modern Exorcist by Matt Baglio

In 2005, Fr. Gary Thomas was quietly living out his vocation as a parish priest in California when he was unexpectedly summoned to Rome for training in the rite of exorcism. Journalist and author Matt Baglio accompanied Fr. Gary throughout his training revealing the astonishing phenomena of possessions, demons, the Devil, exorcisms, and the spiritual battles surrounding us every day. The Rite is now available for loan through the St. Vincent de Paul Parish Library. Now available for loan through the St. Vincent de Paul Parish Library.

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel." – Ezekiel 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required? We do just enough or give just enough. Remember, the Lord calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.

Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia – Think About It!!

Physicians and other health care staff have a basic human right to conscientiously object to hastening a patient's death through assisted suicide or euthanasia and should never be forced to do so.
