June 25 & 26, 2022

Good News Reflection: How to handle rejection

How well do you handle rejection? This Sunday's Gospel reading shows us how the disciples reacted to rejection. They had entered a Samaritan village ahead of Jesus, as he had asked them to do, to gather an audience. But because the Samaritans had an anti-Jewish prejudice, they didn't want to listen to Jesus. Their hearts were closed to anything he might want to say. And so they missed an opportunity to experience the Savior of the world.

How do you feel when close-hearted people reject your efforts to bring Jesus to them? What do you feel like doing when someone refuses to listen to you? Or when you try to explain a teaching of the Church but they don't even want to try to understand?

The disciples who traveled with Jesus didn't like rejection any more than we do. Two of his closest friends, James and John, thought they would do Jesus a favor by asking, "Do you want us to zap them with a lightning bolt?"

Jesus had previously told them to deal with rejection by wiping the dirt from their sandals and walking away. Now he lived what he preached by walking away these Samaritans. He didn't force his beliefs upon the villagers, even though they definitely needed the truths he could have taught them.

There's a lot we have to give up when we follow Jesus, including the grudges we like to hold and our desire to deal with rejection by retaliating. Why give others that kind of control over our moods? Wiping the dirt from our shoes means we get rid of the bad feelings that steal our joy.

At the end of this scripture, Jesus explains that following him is always a forward motion. We're always walking away from something -- away from rejection, away from our unloving reactions to prejudice, away from the close-heartedness of those who are as yet unteachable -- and moving into the loving embrace of Christ.

To move forward, remember that the Holy Spirit is the only one who can prepare a heart to receive Jesus. When we try to bring someone to Jesus and fail, we're not really failing; we're planting seeds rather than harvesting the crop. Let the Holy Spirit finish the work while you move on to other fields.

Questions for Personal Reflection: Who is frustrating you because he/she is not willing to change? What can you do to "walk away" lovingly and to give yourself a break? (It might not be a literal departure.)

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing: Share the story of a time when someone rejected you because you spoke the truth. How did you feel about it? Did you walk away? How did (or might) the Holy Spirit work on that person's heart to prepare them to eventually accept the truth?

Summer Bible Study: 1st Corinthian

Join us this summer for a 10 part Bible Study of St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. First Corinthians is one of the most important letters of the New Testament and we hear from it regularly during the cycle of readings at Mass. The letter covers topics such as the Eucharist, purgatory, immoralities and divisions plaguing the Church, as well as practical advice for living amongst a pagan culture hostile to the Gospel. Sessions will be every Wednesday, from June 29-Aug 31, at 7:00pm in the Church basement. Workbooks and pre-registration are required, cost is $10 per participant in order to assist with the cost of supplies. Please see the registration sheet near the front doors of the Church. Hope to see you there! A project of the Spiritual and Faith Formation Committee. There is a sign-up sheet in the church foyer.

We would like to celebrate your Special Anniversaries and Birthdays with you! Let us know if you are having a special birthday and we will announce it the bulletin. If you are having a special anniversary this year, 25, 40, 50, 55, 60 and up, we will announce them in the bulletin and have a celebration in September.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time “For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.” (Galatians 5:13) We like to celebrate that we are free to “live the good life.” We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God’s work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Angelo is urgently needing helpers for many of the upcoming events at McKenna Hall: PLEASE look at the sign-up sheets in the Church foyer to see where help is needed.

Giving Thanks For Summer

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be
with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.
Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.
As I enjoy Your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.
