Good News Reflection: The Christian call of collaboration

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus tells his disciples to ask the "Master" (God the Father) of the "harvest" (conversion to Christ) to send out more "laborers" (evangelizers). And in the next breath, he tells them that they are the laborers and that they must get busy: "Go on your way," he says.

When you think of evangelizers in the Catholic Church, who comes to mind first? Most of us think of priests, and we all know that we need more priests. New vocations in Western societies are still way too few to compensate for the elderly ones who are retiring and dying.

Do you pray for an increase of vocations? Good, but that's only part of what Jesus is asking us to do. "Go on your way," he says to all of us, "and use your gifts, your talents, and your skills to assist in the harvest.

Jesus has always been collaborative. The number of laborers for the mission of the Church will only be sufficient when we all join the effort -- clergy, religious, and laity -- working together with our separate and unique talents and skills, humbly assisting each other as members of the same team.

To reach this sufficiency, many of us have to overcome the "someone else will take care of it" attitude. And some have to overcome the desire for perfection, the "I can take care of it better myself" attitude, which robs others of the opportunity to serve.

Many of us need to overcome the fear of losing control, the "I must tell others how to do their job" attitude, which chases away some very talented laborers. Jesus said we should carry no supplies into ministry; in other words: We should accept whatever is offered to us.

Our prayers for an increase of consecrated vocations are answered from within collaborative ministry. Clergy and religious are called to be good role models, which will attract new vocations, but the laity are called to serve God with the same zeal and holiness that we expect from priests, because out of families who serve come the holy priests and religious who serve.

Questions for Personal Reflection: Which ministries in your parish and diocese are lacking sufficient laborers? If you're not already busy in the work of God's kingdom, how can you use your talents to help there? If you're already serving enthusiastically, how can you encourage others to get involved?

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing: Name some of the attitudes and obstacles that block the spirit of collaboration. How can these be overcome? What will you do to improve the conditions of the mission field so that more people will get involved?

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation

Program: "I'd love to take the course, but I want to wait until; my kids are grown, I can slow down at work, I'm retired..." The sad truth is, nearly 75% of young people, even those raised in religious homes, will leave the Church by the time they are 25 - well before many of us retire! Some of the most common reasons given for leaving one's faith behind include; perceived conflicts between faith and science, Christians behaving badly, a lack of evidence for the existence of God and difficulties with some of the Church's teachings. Our sons and daughters need mentors who are "well-trained and animated by a sincere faith. Whose life has been touched by the personal and merciful love of Jesus Christ" (Pope Francis). We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352- 1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Congratulations and God's blessings to Chris and Andrea Tessier on their 25th Wedding Anniversary, July 5, from your church family!

CWL are selling Ribbons in support of Ukraine. Proceeds will go to Red Cross Ukraine Humanitarian Crisis Appeal.

They are $5.00 and are located at the back of the church. Thank you for your support.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 9 & 10, 2022

Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Colossians 1:15-20

Luke 10:25-37

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 17 & 18, 2022

Genesis 18:1-10a

Colossians 1:24-28

Luke 10:38-42

Father God, we thank you for all the blessings in our lives; for the very world in which we live and for the health and strength you have bestowed upon us.

Have mercy on us, God,
as we ask now for healing.

The suffering Christ endured provided healing and power over illness. Lord, direct that healing toward our loved ones who suffer and who believe that you can and will restore them to full health.

We call them by name: Graham Dean, Ron Bohn, Jean Watling, Rose Levesque, Evelyn Corbin, Helen Fossenier, Jesse Sidloski and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.

Our condolences to Myron & Evelyn Bruder and family in the loss of Caitlyn. The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you.

The Parish Fair booth will be needing volunteers with cleaning, set up, homemade pies (no cream), servers and clean up. Please see the sheets at the back of the church. The dates are July 3-11. Come out and help, we have a lot of fun working together!

THANK YOU

Angelo would like to say a huge thank you to all the volunteers who helped him with the preparation, delivery, serving and clean-up for the Oilman's Show and for all of the outside caterings that require extra effort. He would like to thank all of the volunteers who faithfully support him all year!

Welcome Visitors & New Parish Members!

Our Parish family warmly welcomes new members. Please fill out a new parishioner form at your earliest convenience. The forms are located on the table in the foyer! As well, if any parishioners have changed information regarding their address, phone number, etc., please let the parish office know!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 14th Sunday in Ordinary

Time “He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” Luke 10:2 As Catholics, we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time “Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37 This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

We would like to celebrate your Special Anniversaries and Birthdays with you! Let us know if you are having a special birthday and we will announce it the bulletin. If you are having a special anniversary this year, 25, 40, 50, 55, 60 and up, we will announce them in the bulletin and have a celebration in September.

Mark your calendars for Fall! On Saturday, September 17th from 10:00-3:00, the directors of Youth Ministry from the Sask. dioceses would like to invite all those care for and serve young people to come together in Saskatoon this September for a day of collaboration, encouragement & training. If you are interested contact Michelle Braden to have your name added to the road trip list! mbraden@archregina.sk.ca

Angelo is urgently needing helpers for many of the upcoming events at McKenna Hall: PLEASE look at the sign-up sheets in the Church foyer to see where help is needed.

Kof C Sask Charity Appeal: Tickets are now on sale from any Knight, in support of Sask Pro Life, Teen Aid Sask, and local projects. Tickets are $1.00 each, in books of 10. Half or full books can be completed for you by Knights if you pay by cash in a sealed envelope addressed to "Knights of Columbus Weyburn" dropped off at StVdP office or in the offertory collection basket, or by eTransfer to kofcc1731@gmail.com.

Second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, July 24, 2022 Plenary Indulgence:

Sunday, July 24, 2022 marks the Second World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly. On this day you may obtain a plenary indulgence. For the elderly, you may obtain this plenary indulgence by either attending Mass or participating in a Mass on TV, the radio or on a livestream. Young people may obtain this indulgence by performing a ‘work of mercy’ by visiting a grandparent or an elderly person on July 24.

Helpers are needed to care for the Church flower beds! See the sign –up sheets in the foyer if you would like to put your name on a list of weekly maintenance. Even if you can only cover one week during the summer it would help.
