Good News.....

It seems odd that Jesus would tell someone he just cured to keep silent about the whole incident. If I had experienced a miraculous cure, I think my first impulse would be to tell everyone about it and how it came to be. It's hard to keep that kind of good news to oneself. But Jesus' reasons for asking this went beyond mere modesty. He did not want people to follow him simply because of what he did. There were prophets and preachers at that time who called attention to God and appeared to cure those who were ill. They cast out demons and preached their understanding of the truth. But Jesus wasn't like any other person. He wanted people to look within themselves and believe in him because of who he was: Emmanuel, God with us.

If we believe in Jesus only because we have seen a miracle, then our faith is not rooted in a deep conviction of heart and mind. The first time something bad happens, our faith will waver. If we believe only because someone else told us to, then when that person exits our lives, our faith may stop. But if we have had a personal encounter with Christ mediated through sacraments, or in prayer, or through another person and have come to believe in Christ as the Son of God, then our faith will grow. It will see us through rocky times and brighten the rest of our days. We will be like someone whose eyes and ears have been opened, because we will see Christ present in the world and hear his voice calling to us to come and follow him.

“Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” (James 2:5)
 What is more important - being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith we know that material things really do not matter and we are more willing to share what we have.

Crisis of Faith: Hope for Families Workshop on Saturday September 12, 2015. With Rev. Fr. James Owolagba who did his seminary studies at the Pontifical Urban University, Rome, Italy, and at St. Joseph's Seminary, Edmonton, Alberta. He was ordained to the priesthood at the Holy Rosary Cathedral, Regina, SK. Fr James at various times served parishes in Regina, Estevan, Gull Lake and Swift Current and continues to serve on a couple of the Regina Archdiocesan Committees. He is at present, the Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Regina and Judicial Vicar of the Marriage Tribunal. Fr. James is an empathetic listener who does his ministry with great compassion. He loves people and likes to talk about world current affairs and sports. Fr James’ pastoral motto is “all things work together unto good for those who love and trust the Lord” (Romans 8:28).

Registration is at 9:00AM - Registration (Coffee and Goodies) 9:30AM and there will be two presentations and lunch.

Billets needed for African Children’s Choir: If you are willing to billet children from the African Children's choir, please contact Doug Loden at 306-861-9949. The choir is here for 4 nights, Sept. 12, 13, 14 & 15.

You look after them in the evening with dinner and a morning breakfast. They have a school program during the day, at Calvary Baptist Church from 9AM to 5PM. One adult leader and 3 children will stay with you. 2 children in a bed is ok or 3 in a queen bed is fine. If you can host for 2 days but not 4, this will help. Hosting these children is a wonderful experience. Thanks for your help.

PLEASE REMEMBER there are many parishioners that are very sensitive to colognes, perfumes and scented lotions, which cause severe reactions. We appreciate your consideration in refraining from using all such fragrances while at St. Vincent de Paul Parish. Please remember also to turn off your cell phones and other electronic devices before Mass. Thank You!
