Good News.....

The undergraduate students with whom I work are part of a generation whose opportunities to serve others began in grade school. Regardless of religious affiliation, culture, or race, these students raised money, contributed to canned food drives, helped at food pantries, or built houses with their classmates or fellow club members. Now in college, they have hundreds of opportunities to help those less fortunate which are sponsored by this nonreligious institution alone, let alone the many more offered by their respective religious house and communities. For the most part, they serve willingly, even eagerly. But I find that few of them sit down to reflect on the good work they do. They rarely consider the call to solidarity with the poor or the command of Christ to love one another. They just have a felt sense that they should.

For Catholics, as for all Christians, this felt sense has its roots in the faith we proclaim. If we truly believe that Christ is the Son of God and our Savior, our faith compels us to do what he did and to love as he loved. And it is more than that. Many people do service work because it's the right thing to do or because they want to give back. Those are good reasons. But we are called to be in a relationship of love with those we serve. We are challenged to see not only how we might serve them but to see the gifts they bring to us and how they shape our lives. We are called to accept them as our brothers and sisters.

Stewardship Focus:
Lector –
Proclaiming
God’s Word!

Liturgy and Worship is the focal point of our Catholic Faith, where we come together as Catholics to celebrate the fundamental beliefs of our Faith. Our worship is enriched when members of the parish participate in various ministries. These ministries provide many opportunities for the sharing of our time and talent and for giving back the gifts God has given us.

Stewardship opportunity: To proclaim the word of God to the assembled community, to read in such a way that they truly hear the Word that is to change their lives.

Talent/Gift to offer: A clear speaking voice with the ability to understand the main points of the readings for each liturgy and to express them clearly to the congregation.

Time commitment: On a rotation schedule, generally once every 4 – 6 weeks, depending on the Mass you prefer to attend.

Treasure/Blessing received: By being involved in the Liturgy, the Mass becomes more alive to you as you proclaim God’s message to His people and by helping the people to understand and pray the Word.

A new lector’s schedule will soon be prepared, please call the parish office to sign up for this ministry!
