Good News.....

A fourth-century legend from Catholics in the Eastern part of the Roman Empire tells us the name of the woman in today's Gospel is Beronike. A woman of great faith, she knew that the Law considered her unclean because she had a flow of blood and no one could touch her. When she saw Jesus, she didn't ask him to touch or even speak to her. She didn't want him to feel what she felt—outcast and isolated. She simply believed that touching his garment would bring her relief.

A couple of weeks ago, St. Paul told us that we walk by faith, not by sight. Faith was all this woman had to go on; everything else had failed. What she heard about Jesus stirred something in her soul, and she followed her convictions. She wasn't disappointed. The power of Christ, who heals us of whatever deeply wounds us, went out immediately to her who dared to hope. When he called out to see who touched him, her fear didn't keep her away. She was saved by faith.

Being saved doesn't always mean miraculous cures, but it does involve standing before Christ as we are—bleeding, broken, sinful—and trusting that he is our answer. We don't know for sure what happened to the woman. But her legend continued.

When Jesus carried his cross to his crucifixion, a woman stepped out to stop the flow of blood and sweat streaking his face. We know her by the Latin translation of Beronike—Veronica—which carries with it an additional meaning: "true icon," in reference to the facial image that Jesus left on her cloth.

FROM PASTOR'S DESK:

“God keep our land glorious and free.” These words from our national anthem came to mind as I reflected upon the upcoming Canada Day on July 1st and the federal election later this fall. While I never question God’s power to protect and watch over us, sometimes I wonder just how much we value both the freedom and the capacity to do good in the world by utilizing well our standing among the nations of the world. Instead of upholding God’s standard and Word for others to emulate, we are hastening to lead the way or at least catch up with the rest of the dubious worldly standards that are risking a greater fragmentation of our society. I am speaking here of abortion on demand, the changing definition of marriage (which is not to be confused as being against and disrespectful towards gays and lesbians – call them “civil unions” if you wish), and now euthanasia and physician assisted suicide. Let’s not kid ourselves at just how quickly these realities and the consequent shift of our acceptance are changing the landscape of our Canadian society and how future generations will be impacted. Talk about the moral and ethical vacuum that will exist in the minds of many. We are witnessing a complete lack of moral integrity among our elected political and appointed judicial officials across the whole political spectrum. Nobody seems to dare to tackle or speak against what seems to be commonly accepted or resigned to by the large number of Canadians. I think it is time for thinking and freedom-loving Canadians to seriously quiz our politicians seeking election to represent us and to make decisions on our behalf in Ottawa and also in Regina. To single out these three issues is not intended to isolate them from other pressing matters on world peace, world-wide poverty and hunger, the growing number of refugees seeking safety, and caring for the environment. If God is to keep our country “glorious and free”, then we need to pray in all earnestness and greater fervor for a change of heart among ourselves, fellow Canadians and our aspiring politicians. As John the Baptist declared, “Christ must increase and I must decrease” (John 3:30) How else can this happen, if not by submitting in full obedience and allegiance to Christ, His teaching and example of life, so that the person of Christ resonates in everything we think, do and are. St. Paul would say, “I have been crucified with Christ, and I live now not with my own life, but with the life of Christ who lives in me.” (Galatians 2:20) All of us should strive and aspire to this! Happy Canada Day and may God bless each of you and our country!
