Good News!

At the climax of The Miracle Worker, the play about deaf and blind Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan, Annie spells water into Helen's hand while water pours over Helen's other hand. Helen's face changes as she suddenly makes the connection between the signs Annie is making and the reality of the water. Helen starts touching things wildly while Annie signs the letters in her hand at an ever faster rate. Finally, Helen points to Annie, who spells T-E-A-C-H-E-R in her hand. The best teacher is not the one who can speak the loudest or the most, but the one who patiently does the same thing over and over until the student makes the connection and finally learns.

Jesus is our teacher, and in the Gospel story today he demonstrates it not with a wordy lecture but by drawing in the dust and inviting his reluctant students to think about what they are doing. We don't know what he wrote, and it isn't important. He neither engaged in the debate nor shamed the woman brought before him. He made the scribes and Pharisees look and wait. Then he asked them to judge themselves first. It's a good lesson for us all. Before we condemn anyone else, we should look at the ways in which we have sinned. The lesson continues for the woman as she is told to go and sin no more.

As Helen was attentive to Annie, let us be attentive to what Jesus spells out for us. His lessons lead us to new life and the knowledge of God.

5th Week in Lent

Work of Mercy focus: “I was sick and you cared for me.”

We all have been sick with a cold or the flu. Some people don't have anyone to care for them when they are sick. A lot of children in the world get sick because they don't have the medicine to prevent disease or they can't see a doctor or get to a hospital.

Consider a donation equal to a gift or service you might give someone who is in hospital, dealing with a long-term illness, or recovering from an illness or operation (i.e. card, bouquet of flowers, fruit tray, etc.)

FROM PASTOR'S DESK:

I extend a special "Thank You" to everyone who was involved with our recent Parish Mission with Deacon Bob & Joan Williston from getting the rectory ready, preparing meals, arranging the evening PowerPoint projections, bringing baking and especially in attending the Mission. It was thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended both the Morning Masses and Evening presentations. Bob and Joan enjoyed the opportunity to present this Parish Mission, as they are discerning whether to start giving them on a semi-regular schedule but not at the pace previously. Thank you to one and all; it was an enriching experience of extending the Year of Mercy in a special way.

Pope Francis promotes the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy during this Year of Mercy in addition to the prayers and devotions being fostered during this Jubilee Year, because they provide a vital link to our everyday lives. Sometimes we think that we are not able to carry them out all directly, yet by using our imagination we can creatively carry out their spirit more than we realize. Both the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy are grounded in our Catholic tradition and represent elements of our faith that we should strive to practice at all times, not just during this Year of Mercy. The Corporal Works of Mercy are: feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, visiting those in prison, comforting the sick, and burying the dead. The Spiritual Works of Mercy are: admonishing sinners, instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, comforting the sorrowful, being patient with those in error, forgiving offenses, and praying for the living and the dead. All of us would benefit from taking each of these on their own and reflecting on how we can actually practice them in a greater way in our lives, so that we foster the mind and heart of Christ in all our relationships with others, for certainly many of them are included in those that we are invited to help through those measures, even as we extend them to those who are hungry, thirsty, homeless and sick spiritually. The more we can foster them in our daily practice the more we strive to create the Christian community that is grounded in the Lord's love and mercy, developing the compassion and generosity of Christ in reaching out to those in need around Him. Several aspects of the Works of Mercy can be addressed in the participation of the welcoming and hosting our Syrian Refugee families, as well as in our partnership in support of the Sandy Bay Mission in northern Saskatchewan. We are large enough a parish that we can handle both of these together. May God bless you in your generosity and capacity to share with your brothers and sisters in Christ.
