November 12 & 13, 2016
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good News: The temporary and the divine

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus says that the day will come when not one stone of the temple will be left mortared to another, because it will all be torn down. He's reminding us that everything here on earth is temporary.

Think of what you enjoy here on earth. It's temporary. What causes you to suffer? It too is temporary. What of this world do you depend on? It's temporary. What do you admire, trust, save, hope for, spend working hours to achieve and plan relaxation hours for a reward? It's all temporary -- unless we are using it for the Kingdom of God.

We know that we're supposed to focus on the things of God, things that will last for all of eternity, but we're uncomfortable with the blind faith that this requires. We are like the disciples who looked for God's vindication against injustices and immorality in the temporal world: wars, earthquakes, plagues and famines. We wish that Jesus would hurry up with his Second Coming and stop all the evils and hardships.

In our daily lives, we seek God's help, but we look for something tangible upon which to base our faith. We want to know the future; we don't like the insecurity of not knowing what God has planned. We depend on what we can see more than we depend on God whom we cannot see, so we ask God to give us signs.

However, the best way to walk forward with God is to raise one foot in air, preparing to take the next step, and -- while that foot is still in the air -- ask God: "Where do You want me to place my foot next?"

This takes balance; if we don't remain centered in God, we teeter and fall. If God doesn't show us immediately where to put our foot down to move forward, we can either fall away or fall into his hand.

God's hand is never temporary! God's hand provides true security based only on his endless, all-powerful, all-knowing love. It doesn't always feel that way, but his love and protection never fail.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What help from God are you currently waiting for? What wars and insurrections are plaguing your life? Do you believe that your problem is temporary or do you fear that it's permanent? What will you do this week to entrust yourself to the wisdom and guidance of Jesus?

Welcome Visitors & New Parish Members!

UNDERSTANDING the mass

Eric Gurash, the Coordinator for Lay Formation and Evangelization at the Archdiocese of Regina will be coming to St Vincent de Paul Parish on Thursday Nov 17 from 6:30-7:30 to give a presentation called "The Book of Revelation and the Mass: using the Book of Revelation as a guide to understanding what is going on at the Mass and why the Mass matters." Through a lively and inspiring examination of the Book of Revelation, Eric will help us discover a message of hope that points directly to the great mystery and beauty of the Mass as the gateway to the divine. Mass will be celebrated following the presentation. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your knowledge and appreciation of the Mass. Refreshments to follow. Everyone is invited!

Revelation Bible Study begins Tuesday, Nov. 22, 6:30 – 8:30 PM, as well as Wednesday, November 23, 10 AM – 11:30 AM - for 11 weeks. In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history. Archbishop’s Annual Appeal: Jesus predicted that the Jerusalem Temple, beautiful as it was, would be destroyed. He then went on to speak of wider turmoil among the nations, throughout the natural world, and in the heaven. But before the end, the Day of the Lord, which will bring judgment on evil and healing to the faithful, there will be a long period which will be marked by rejection, persecution, and even execution for faith in Christ. However, he urged perseverance to secure our eternal life

St. Paul wrote to tell us in this waiting period, we should carry on our daily tasks and work, taking responsibility to support ourselves. That keeps disorder out of the Christian community, and leads us to a quiet yet active life of faith in which we share our time, talent, and treasure to serve Christ and his Church.

Assisted Suicide & Euthanasia THINK ABOUT IT: Forcing doctors and other health care workers who morally object to euthanasia to refer patients to someone else for “assisted death” makes them complicit in an act that goes against their conscience. For many health care providers, euthanasia and assisted suicide are completely contrary to why they chose their profession: to provide help and healing, not harm.
