Good News: Why is there no marriage in heaven?

Do you believe in the resurrection? That's the question that Jesus indirectly poses when he challenges the Sadducees in this Sunday's Gospel reading.

As Christians, we believe that someday we will experience a resurrection like Christ's after we depart from this present earthly "age" or stage of life. All believers who follow Jesus will live as the angels do. This is why Catholic funeral Masses are Resurrection Masses and use white instead of black as the liturgical color.

But do you believe in the resurrection of love? Jesus explained the resurrection in terms of marriage. A marriage is supposed to be a reflection of God's radical love for his people. Marriage is supposed to unite a man and a woman in an enduring love that is the very presence of God. It gives witness to the world that God's faithfulness and commitment to us is real.

So why would Jesus say that marriage is not a part of the resurrection of the dead? Why won't today's marriages become perfect and continue forever after both husband and wife have entered heaven?

Here on earth, love is imperfectly given and imperfectly received. Therefore, it's constantly dying and being resurrected again, every day, to the extent that each spouse repents and forgives. (The same is true of any friendship.)

Perfect love is God. We live as true children of God when we love our brothers and sisters the way he loves them. Marriage does not exist in heaven because it's an imperfect love: We love our spouses more than we love others. In heaven, we will love our spouses fully (yes, even our ex-spouses!) and we will love everyone else just as much. And those who have loved us poorly will love us better than the best spouse could love us now.

Marriage is only an earthly foreshadowing of the divine, faithful, creative love that we will share with everyone in heaven.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Who has failed to love you enough? Who has caused you pain? How would you feel if that person were to greet you at the entrance of heaven at the moment of your death? Do you have enough love for that person to get you through the door?

UNDERSTANDING the mass

Eric Gurash, the Coordinator for Lay Formation and Evangelization at the Archdiocese of Regina will be coming to St Vincent de Paul Parish on Thursday Nov 17 from 6:30-7:30 to give a presentation called "The Book of Revelation and the Mass: using the Book of Revelation as a guide to understanding what is going on at the Mass and why the Mass matters." Through a lively and inspiring examination of the Book of Revelation, Eric will help us discover a message of hope that points directly to the great mystery and beauty of the Mass as the gateway to the divine. Mass will be celebrated following the presentation. Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your knowledge and appreciation of the Mass. Refreshments to follow. Everyone is invited!

Revelation Bible Study begins Tuesday, Nov. 22, 6:30 – 8:30 PM, for 11 weeks. In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history. Please sign up in the foyer prior to Nov. 14. Cost of materials will be approx. $30 – $35.00

Get an early start to your Christmas shopping! The ladies will have religious articles for sale before and after Masses on the following dates: Sunday, November 20th Saturday, November 26th & Sunday, November 27th! Lots of Christmas cards, nativity sets and Christmas ornaments available!

Eucharist Ministers Needed! A new schedule will soon be prepared. We currently have 9 spots that need to be filled! To share in the distribution of the “Body of Christ” is a deeply moving experience for a Eucharist Minister. It allows us to serve our fellow parishioners in a very personal, spiritual experience, while celebrating together the deepest meaning of our faith. Please contact Mary Ann or Wendy prior to November 9th if you would like to be a part of this ministry. All those scheduled will remain on unless we hear from you.

Altar Servers are needed!! There is no age limit! Open to boys and girls, grade 3 (confirmed), men and women – of any age!! We welcome parents and children to serve together! Our church needs you and Fr. Francis looks forward to having you assist him on the Altar! Training sessions will be provided! Archbishop’s Annual Appeal: We are to take God’s love and spread it among those around us through sharing and service. One of the ways to fulfill this is by participating in the pastoral programs of the Archdiocese by donating to the Annual Appeal. Through the Annual Appeal we reach out to others in an anonymous way that only God can see. It’s one of the ways we multiply our hands to reach out to others in response to Gods’ grace in us, a natural and fulfilling way to live. As followers of Christ we are optimistic. As Helen Keller once said, “Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. Nothing can be done without hope and confidence.”

St. Vincent de Paul Goal = $55,397.00 Collected to date = $32,538.10

Assisted Suicide & Euthanasia THINK ABOUT IT: Forcing doctors and other health care workers who morally object to euthanasia to refer patients to someone else for “assisted death” makes them complicit in an act that goes against their conscience. For many health care providers, euthanasia and assisted suicide are completely contrary to why they chose their profession: to provide help and healing, not harm.
