Good News Reflection: The nature of our calling

Whenever I read this Sunday's Gospel story, I have to wonder, how did Jesus catch the fish he was barbecuing when the disciples came ashore? Did he have a net, too? Did he buy it in town with the bread? If so, didn't anyone recognize him? Or maybe the fish just jumped out of the water onto the fire! And maybe he turned stone into bread, like Satan had once tempted him to do.

Reflect back upon the miracle of the multiplication of loaves and fish. Same foods: bread and fish. Same miracle! It does not matter how little we have or even whether we have anything at all. God the Creator has an infinite supply and is able to produce an abundance of everything. It's never based on what we have; it's always based on the love he has for us.

What he wants from us is the willingness to do the work of sharing what God provides. In the miracle of feeding the crowd, the disciples were asked to distribute the multiplied food. In the miracle of the huge catch of fish, the disciples were asked to "bring some of the fish you caught" and add it to the meal that Jesus was already cooking.

Afterward, Peter was asked to share the love he had for Jesus with the "sheep". From where does love come? Peter didn't love anybody by his own efforts; none of us do. Peter was created with God's love already in him, as we all were, for we were made in the image of God who is love.

Peter's calling was to share the abundance of God's love, so that the kingdom of God could continue to spread throughout the earth. What is God asking you to do? The answer does not lie in what you have, but in what you are willing to do with what God already has.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What work for the kingdom of God (the parish, a friend, a community program) have you felt a desire to do but haven't yet done because your net feels empty? Assume that Jesus is asking you to do it; what action can you take this week that will toss your net over the other side of the boat?

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing:

Are you doing everything you feel called by God to do? Share with your community a frustrated calling, i.e., an unsuccessful or un-begun vocation. What does God have that you don't have that could turn the dream into reality? Exchange ideas on how to avail yourself of God's abundance.

Lord, help us to see Jesus presence in our lives. Though we may not see him in the flesh, remind us that He is present in the kindness and compassion of the people around us in our daily lives. Help us to respond to Jesus' invitation, and follow through with our own actions, so that people we meet may also see the Lord in us.

Amen

The CWL has been invited to take part in a gift of a Spiritual Bouquet, listing the number of Masses, rosaries, litanies, chaplets, novenas, prayers and hours of meditation offered to the intentions of the Pope. There is a list at the back of the church to mark which offerings you have made to His Holiness' intentions, before May 6, 2022, when we will send them to our National CWL representatives. Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 3rd Sunday of Easter

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (John 21:17)

How often do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all crave love. Tell someone you love them every day.

Stained Glass Windows Tour: The Spiritual and Faith Formation Committee will be leading a guided tour of the stained glass windows of St. Vincent de Paul on Saturday, May 7, 6:30pm. We'll discuss the artistic techniques of stained glass, offer some commentary, and connect the scenes in the windows to the Bible and our rich Catholic faith. You will leave with a renewed appreciation for how the art and architecture of our very own church building proclaims the Gospel in ways you may not have realized. Everyone welcome.

"Ukrainian War Support: A group of Ukrainian women living in Weyburn, with the support of our Parish and KofC, hoping to raise money to support Ukraine's defence, will be holding a dine-in and take-out meal at McKenna Auditorium on Sunday May 22nd from 11 am to 7 pm. $20.00 per person."
