Good News Reflection: Blind trust in Jesus

This Sunday's Gospel reading is short and to the point: Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is the only one we follow, the only one we can trust blindly.

Others who have authority in our lives might be good shepherds, but none of them are to be followed blindly, not even the best of them. We respect the positions of bishops, parish pastors, employers, teachers, parents, etc., but all make mistakes, all sin, all have incomplete understandings of the situations for which they're responsible. We must use the Holy Spirit's gift of discernment in each case so that we don't behave like dumb sheep inadvertently cooperating with decisions that grieve our Father God.

Only Jesus can be blindly trusted. Only Jesus is perfect and knows all, understands all, and never sins. Only Jesus can successfully make the right decisions all the time and lead us through the various situations of life without inadvertently cooperating with evil. Only Jesus can discern and implement a plan that's best for every person who's affected by the plan. Only Jesus can lead us closer and closer to heaven while guiding us through the pitfalls and dangers of the journey.

And it is only Jesus who can smile at our blunders when we stray from his plans, because he knows that we still really do love him and want to do what's right. He knows how to implement a new plan that will steer us back into safe pastures. He compassionately holds onto us so that we don't wriggle away from the Father's hand forever.

Whenever we distrust anyone -- ourselves, included -- we can safely trust that no matter what happens, Jesus is always there, steadfastly guiding us and re-guiding us after we stray. Because we really do love him and want to do what's right, he is securing our safety, redeeming our mistakes, making good come from bad when we repent of our sins, and of course always making sure that we'll get home to heaven.

To be good sheep, all we have to do is cooperate with his guidance!

Questions for Personal Reflection:

How much do you trust yourself and your discernment of truth and your ability to stay on the path to heaven?
Who else is difficult to trust right now? What will you do this week to entrust these matters to Jesus?

5th Sunday of Easter

Acts 14:21-27

Ps 145:8-13

Revelation 21:1-5a

John 13:31-35

Father God, we thank you for all the blessings in our life; for the very world in which we live and for the health and strength you have betowed upon us. Have mercy on us, God, as we ask now for healing.

The stripes Christ endured provided healing and power over illness. Lord, direct that healing toward our loved ones who suffer, who believe you can and will restore them to full health.

We call them by name: Mebin Thomas, Michael VanBetuw, Jim McGowan,

Lawrence Fellner, Jesse Sidloski, Emma Reich, Julio Hernandez, Linda Kot, and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.

We believe you have already provided our healing, Father. Thank you for being our Great Physician.

In faith, believing we accept your gift of restoration and thank you for it. All glory and honour and praise be to God, from whom all blessings flow. In the mighty name of Jesus, we submit our petition, Amen.

Hats off to SAFF and its remarkable team!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 4th Sunday of Easter

"The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." (Acts 13:52) The disciples heard Our Lord's call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to!

Music Ministry is a huge part of the Mass and is also a lot of fun! Perhaps you and your family would like to try something new.

Please consider joining one of our choirs!

Any of our church choirs would be very welcoming to new members, and are always looking for new voices (or instruments) to join! If this is something that you would be interested in, please give us a call at the parish office.

We are always in need of volunteers. Do you see those VACANT spaces on the back page of our bulletins? Those are all spots that we would like to see filled. If you are interested in serving your church through the small commitment of volunteering for one of these ministries, please let the parish office know as soon as possible. And as always, thank you to all who have already devoted their time to aiding in these important ministries.

WE NEED YOU
