Good News Reflection: The glorious mission

If you knew you were about to die, what wisdom would you impart to your loved ones in your final moments? What's most important for them to learn from you?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus knows that his time is short. The first thing he says to his friends are words of praise for God (the Father) while equating himself with God. He even calls his friends "children" as if he himself is God the Father! In so doing, he makes it clear that he is one with the Father -- so totally that the lines between Father and Savior are blurred. And he does it humbly. He could have said, "Hey guys, in case you're not sure, I am divine. I am God. Worship me." But instead, he focuses on the glory of God.

Glory is the radiating light of God's presence: his love, his joy, his holiness, his peace, his wisdom, his creativity, and everything else that he imparts on those who want to bathe in his glory. When we glorify God, we are reflecting back to him this same glory. How much of this glory is illuminating your life?

After describing the exchange of glory between Father and Son, Jesus imparts to his disciples the highest wisdom of the universe: The key to successfully joining Jesus in the glory of God is to love as he loves.

Love is not love unless it unselfishly gives itself to others. Jesus unselfishly gave himself to us completely, even in death. Followers of Jesus are not true followers, disciples are not true disciples, priests are not true priests, lay leaders are not true leaders, unless they serve with love, in love, and through love.

The glory of God is love that gives itself completely, even sacrificially. Why does the Gospel reading give us a scene from the Passion of Christ while we're celebrating the season of Easter? The other readings are full of Easter: "Behold, I make all things new" (Rev. 21:5a). And yet here is Jesus preparing for betrayal, torture, and death. Why?

This Gospel reading is Jesus imparting to us today the key to continuing the mission of sharing God's glory, which Jesus began and now calls us to do. By loving one another in a spirit of sacrifice, we are showing the world that Jesus is real, he is risen, and he is alive in us.

Questions for Personal Reflection: Whom do you not love? If you were able to give that person a gift of yourself as an act of love for the glory of God, what would that gift be?

Father God, we thank you for all the blessings in our life; for the very world in which we live and for the health and strength you have bestowed upon us. Have mercy on us, God, as we ask now for healing.

The stripes Christ endured provided healing and power over illness. Lord, direct that healing toward our loved ones who suffer, who believe you can and will restore them to full health.

We call them by name: Mebin Thomas,

Michael VanBetuw, Jim McGowan,

Lawrence Fellner, Jerome Stepp, Darwin Thiel, Jesse Sidloski, Julio Hernandez and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.

We believe you have already provided our healing, Father. Thank you for being our Great Physician. In faith, and believing we accept your gift of restoration and thank you for it. All glory and honour and praise be to God, from whom all blessings flow.

Our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Norbert Schultz. The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you. In the mighty name of Jesus, we submit our petition, Amen.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 5th Sunday of Easter :

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." (John 13:34) "As I have loved you," this is the hard part – Jesus's love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn't matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to "love my neighbor" when they may be someone you don't like, someone you don't know or someone that doesn't look like you
