Good News Reflection - 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom's Feast: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Wisdom of God has prepared a feast, we hear in today's First Reading.

We must become like children (see Matthew 18:3–4) to hear and accept this invitation. For in every Eucharist, it is the folly of the Cross that is represented and renewed.

To the world, it is foolishness to believe that the crucified Jesus rose from the dead. And for many, as for the crowds in today's Gospel, it is foolishness—maybe even madness—to believe that Jesus can give us His Flesh to eat.

Yet Jesus repeats himself with gathering intensity in the Gospel today. Notice the repetition of the words “eat” and “drink,” and “my Flesh” and “my Blood.” To heighten the unbelievable realism of what Jesus asks us to believe, John in these verses uses not the ordinary Greek word for eating but a cruder term, once reserved to describe the “munching” of feeding animals.

The foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom (see 1 Corinthians 1:18–25). In His foolish love, He chooses to save those who believe that His Flesh is true food, His Blood, true drink.

Fear of the Lord, the desire to live by His will, is the beginning of true wisdom, Paul says in today's Epistle (see Proverbs 9:10). And as we sing in today's Psalm, those who fear Him shall not want for any good thing.

Again, today in the liturgy, we are called to renew our faith in the Eucharist, to forsake the foolishness of believing only what we can see with our eyes.

We approach, then, not only an altar prepared with bread and wine, but the feast of Wisdom, the banquet of heaven—in which God our Savior renews His everlasting covenant and promises to destroy death forever (see Isaiah 25:6–9).

Let us make the most of our days, as Paul says, always, in the Eucharist, giving thanks to God for everything in the name of Jesus, the bread come down from heaven.

Mass Intentions: We are running out of Mass requests. Mass intentions in our Care Homes have been removed for this reason. Please, contact the Parish office for Mass requests for your various intentions.

You're invited to a celebration for Inge Ciarciaglini's 85th birthday with friends, family and well-wishers on Sunday, August 18. After the 10 am Mass there will be a tea at McKenna Hall.

The next Practice for the Youth Choir will be on Thursday, August 22, at 3:30 pm.

Are you Tech Savvy and interested in doing volunteer time at church. We are looking for extra volunteers for the laptop. We need volunteers Saturday at 5pm Mass and when we go back to two masses on Sunday, we will need extra help at 11 am Mass. We are happy to give you time for training. Please call the office if you can help.

Communion to Shut-ins and those in Hospitals: In order to make certain our parishioners who cannot get to the Church for Mass and to receive the Eucharist we need their church family to let the office know who is needing this service. Call the office at (306) 842-2129.

Readings for the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jn 6:51-58

Readings for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Josh 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b
Eph 4:32-5:1-2, 21-32
Jn 6:53, 60-69

Heavenly Father, direct your healing toward our loved ones who suffer and who believe that you can and will restore them to full health.

We call them by name: Connie Regier, Betty Van Staveren, Anthony Delanoy, Bonnie Kaip, Eva Maas, Alice Schneider, Amanda Kopec, and all those facing illness or any of life's struggles.

Our condolences to the families and friends of Patrick McLaughlin, brother-in-law to Tom Schuck and the dearly departed. The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you.

Attention Parishioners!! St. Vincent de Paul will be doing a new Picture Directory.

The last one was compiled in 2018. To be successful it is essential that all parishioners participate. The directory is a great resource for Father, newcomers and fellow parishioners to identify one another. There is no cost to have family pictures taken and no sitting fee for the directory. It is a good resource to get family pictures done for Christmas at a reduced cost. Please see the sign-up sheets at the back of the church for making appointments.

Happy 24th Priestly Anniversary to Father Valentine on August 19. Join him at Mass at 6:30pm and snacks after.

Happy 85th Birthday to Stafford Nimegeers! Thank you both for your service and dedication to the parish.

Wishing you many blessings in the coming years.

Welcome Visitors and New Parishioners!

Our Parish family warmly welcomes new members. Please fill out a New Parishioner form at your earliest convenience. The forms are located on a table in the foyer!
As well, if any parishioner has changed their address, phone number etc., please inform the office.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time – “Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.”

John 6:56. This line from Scripture is what ultimately separates Catholics from our Protestant brothers and sisters. Jesus is really present in the bread and wine that are consecrated at Holy Mass. It is His actual body and blood that we consume. This is the greatest gift that we can receive. The Eucharist shows us how great of love that Jesus has for each of us.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time - “If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve...As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.”

Joshua 24:15. When we commit to serve the Lord, we become a disciple in the work of the Lord. A disciple is a person who spends time in prayer every day, joyfully participates in charitable works and generously supports their local parish and Church mission. If we say we serve God, our words and actions should reflect the Gospel message to others.

James' Pick of the Week

Confusion in the Kingdom: how "progressive" Catholicism is bringing harm and scandal to the Church by Trent Horn

What is going on in the Church today? Liberal or "progressive" Catholics want to rewrite the Church's political and social teachings as well as traditional understandings on marriage, sex, and the family. Catholic unity is starting to fracture, pitting the Body of Christ against itself and causing many Catholics to throw up their hands. Apologist Trent Horn teaches readers how to argue against these liberal errors by showing why they're not representative of Catholic orthodoxy and exposing the harm and scandal they have caused. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!
