Divine Mercy

Jesus' message to St. Faustina's taken from her diary
"Divine Mercy in My Soul"

1. At the hour of death, I defend as my own glory every soul that will say this chaplet, or when others say it for a dying person, the pardon is the same. When this chaplet is said by the bedside of a dying person, God's anger is placated, unfathomable mercy envelopes the soul, and the very depths of my mercy are moved for the sake of my sorrowful passion of my son (Diary, 811).
2. When the priest acts in my place, he does not act of himself, but I act through him. His wishes are mine (Diary 331).
3. Who will recite it (divine mercy chaplet) will receive great mercy at the hour of death (Diary 687).
4. The soul that says this chaplet will be embraced by my mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death (Diary 754).
5. Before I come as a just judge, I first open wide the door of my mercy. He who refuses to pass through the door of my mercy must pass through the door of my justice.... (Diary 1147).
6. The soul that trusts in my mercy is most fortunate, because I myself take care of it (Diary 1273).
7. I want to grant a complete pardon to souls that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion on the feast of my mercy (Diary 1109).
