February 9 & 10, 2019 – 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good News Reflection - The big picture

Very often, the Lord gives us help even when we don't ask for it. We see this in what he did for Simon Peter, James and John in this Sunday's Gospel reading, when he provided a great catch of fish for them.

What's his motive? Was he rewarding these fishermen for lending him one of their boats? Do you think he does good things for you as a reward? Well, it's not a reward. There's a bigger picture. Note the pattern of Christ's interaction with us as illustrated by this Gospel story:

1. First, the fishermen already know Jesus; they call him "Master" because he's a master teacher and they are his students.
2. Second, Jesus helps them in an unexpected way.
3. Third, Jesus turns the gift into a calling.
4. Fourth, the disciples give up everything that could interfere with answering the call.

Whenever God intervenes in our lives, he does it to benefit us and others. We belong to a community, God's family; we are not in relationship with God as isolated individuals. By connecting ourselves to God in prayer, in the Eucharist, and in worship, we are connecting ourselves to everyone else and to his concerns for them.

Our prayers for help are never answered only for our sake. God always sees a bigger picture. And he always cares about everyone who's affected. If it seems like God isn't responding to your pleas, it's because he's working on a bigger plan. He's coordinating how the answer to your prayers will help others -- many others.

God cares very much about your personal needs and desires, but he cares about everyone else, too, whether they ask for his help or not. And he is turning your needs into a calling, a ministry designed specifically for you. This means that the moment you begin asking for help, you are called by God to share his help with others.

By thinking beyond ourselves while waiting for our troubles to end, we find peace and hope and value in the hardships we endure. This is the vocation of daily life.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What prayer requests are you still waiting for God to answer? What might God be doing during this delay that could benefit others?

We want to celebrate your milestones! Send us the dates of milestone Birthdays or Anniversaries of either you or your loved ones, and we will announce the special occasion in our parish bulletin!

We are a Scent-Free building.

Our many chemically sensitive parishioners appreciate your thoughtfulness by not wearing perfume, aftershave, scented hand lotion, fragranced hair products, essential oils and/or scented products.

Donations envelopes for 2019 are now ready. Please make sure to pick yours up from the tables in the church foyer. Please also be certain to only use the 2019 envelopes for donations, as the numbers associated with your account change every year.

The Bishops of Saskatchewan have partnered with the Sask. K of C Charitable Foundation to create the Saskatchewan K of C Vocations Endowment. The proceeds from this Endowment will be disbursed on an annual basis equally to each seminarian throughout all Saskatchewan Diocese and Eparchy to help defray the $33,000 per year it costs to educate each Seminarian. Please view our website at www.saskkofcfoundation.com for further details and to make a contribution. The Bishops, Dioceses, K of C, and Catholic faithful thank you in advance for your generous support of the education and development of Seminarians through Prayer and financial assistance.

Let’s Go For Coffee: Lectio Divina

As Catholics, we are pretty good at making our requests known to God in prayer. We pray for others, or for our own needs during a difficult time, and this is a good thing. But Christ also wants to chat with us over a cup of coffee, so to speak. Please join us for a six week DVD study session on the ancient practice of Lectio Divina. Learn to find “intimacy” with God, as the saints did, under the instruction of Dr. Tim Gray of the Augustine Institute. Sessions will run March 5th to April 9th, just in time for your Lenten devotion. Please see the sign-up sheets at the back of the Church for more information.

For our Lenten Retreat on March 4th and 5th, we are looking for a total of four people to proclaim the Scripture (two for each night of the retreat). We are also looking for a couple of people to organize making coffee and setting out cookies for after each night of the retreat. If you are willing to volunteer for either of these things, please sign up on the sheet in the church foyer, or call the parish office. Thank you!

Join the “Call for Conscience”! We are asking the Saskatchewan legislature to create and support a bill which would deal with conscience rights for doctors, nurses and healthcare professionals who cannot participate in euthanasia/assisted suicide in good conscience. To learn more, please visit www.CanadiansforConscience.ca/saskatchewan, and write directly to your Health Ministers, asking them to support to push for legislative protection for Saskatchewan healthcare professionals.

The Weyburn Knights of Columbus are starting Lent with a Fish Fry! It will be held on March 8, 2019 at the McKenna Hall.

Advance tickets are $18 per adult ($20 at door), $8 for 10 and under ($10 at door), and FREE for 3 and under. Tickets are available from any Knight.

Prayer Shawl Ministry – We have a beautiful assortment of prayer shawls that have been lovingly made by members of our parish. Prayer shawls are meant to be given to others to comfort them in times of pain, loss, stress, healing; or simply to be a symbol of prayers and love for anything else that may be happening in the recipient's life. If you would like to choose a prayer shawl to give to a loved one, please come see us at the parish office. Once chosen, we can get the prayer shawl blessed by Father, and it can be gifted to offer comfort for those who need it.

Funeral Lunch Groups: The following groups are next for upcoming funerals: Marilyn and Ev, Fran, and Donna and Renee.

The latest issue of "The Arch" (released by the Archdiocese of Regina) can be found through a link on our parish website, at www.stvincentdepaul.ca. A limited number of paper copies will also be available in the church foyer.

Please plan to attend, and spread the word!!

"Thou hast made us for thyself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you." – St. Augustine

If you are looking for love this Valentine's Day, you can only find it in Jesus. The man who wrote the quote above tried everything to find love he could rest in. Outwardly, he had it all. Inwardly, he was churning with restlessness. Until he met Jesus. In Jesus, Augustine found what his heart was seeking – a love he could eternally rest in. A love big enough to still the turmoil inside him. This Valentine's Day, stop settling for inadequate love. Consider Jesus and let him give you the eternal love, rest, and peace that your heart was made for.

CWL: The CWL Executive Meeting will be on Monday, February 11th.

The CWL General Meeting will be on Monday, February 18th, starting with Mass at 6:30pm and the meeting to follow. For our February CWL collection and donation, please bring canned meat and canned fruit.

St. Vincent de Paul Parish Trivia

The answer is: C

St. Vincent de Paul was once accused of theft by his roommate. Humbly, he did not defend himself and was punished, but the real thief felt compelled to confess years later, clearing St. Vincent's name.

Make sure to watch the projector screens before mass to see next week's question!
