Good News Reflection, Finding energy to do what we're called to do

Everyone in ministry feels overwhelmed by their calling from time to time. Whether it's the ministry of raising children, or caring for an elderly spouse or parent, or working a job in a way that reveals Christ, or volunteering at a church or pastoring a parish, it's necessary to take time out for ourselves -- a vacation, a holiday -- for nourishment and rest and recuperation. Jesus says so in this Sunday's Gospel reading.

If we don't obey this commandment, we become cranky. We make selfish or poor decisions. We become like the evil shepherds of the first reading, who misled and scattered those whom they were called to serve. Why? Because we become vulnerable to temptations when we try to give what we do not have.

It takes energy to reveal God's love. It takes energy to remain enthusiastic in serving others. But how can we get recharged with new energy if we don't take time to sit still, rest, and pray? How can we care about others when we don't take good care of ourselves? Jesus lives within us, but before we can give him to others, we must first let him give himself to us.

Daily we encounter people who are like sheep without a shepherd; they are seeking Jesus whether they realize it or not. They want the unconditional love that he has to give. They want the healing and peace that he offers. He wants to help them, but if we who are his hands and feet and voice are too weak and worn out from our hardships, what then?

We need to go to a deserted place with Jesus and rest awhile in his nourishing love. If we go away on a retreat or vacation and come back to our work and ministries still cranky (i.e., if the people we shepherd wish we'd go take a longer trip), we haven't rested enough. We've cut short the restoration process. Never-mind the pile-up of work. Jesus is inviting us to "Come away by yourself and rest awhile longer with Me until you become more like Me."

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What work of the Lord has become unhappy for you? What stole your joy? How can you get it back? (You might need a spiritual director to help you figure this out.) What needs of yours must be met before you can feel enthusiastic about ministry? What will you do this week to let Jesus meet these needs?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

Why do people neglect to give themselves enough time for rest and restoration? What do you do to nourish (develop, strengthen, get more in touch with) the gifts, talents, healing, and insights that God gives you so that you can minister to others? What's been most helpful in restoring your Christian enthusiasm?

Mark 6:7-13

God of love and hope be with us as we ask for your blessing on those who are in need of our prayers; John Tuchscherer, Dale Anderson, Jeanette Johner, Keesha Maas and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles. Our condolences to the family. The thoughts and prayers of their church family are with you.

The St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Women's League

is asking you to read this petition and sign your name to it to protect our vulnerable society and health care workers. Petition to the House of Commons re: Bill C-268 which is attempting to prevent coercion, intimidation, or other forms of pressure to force physicians and healthcare workers to become parties in assisted suicide or euthanasia in violation of their fundamental freedom of conscience. Please add your name to this petition and it will be sent to Kelly Block, M.P. Copies will be placed on the tables in the entrance at McKenna Hall.

Your Parish needs You!

As all the ministries are starting back up we are finding that many of our senior volunteers are unable to carry on their services to the parish that they have been doing for so many years. First we would like to thank them for their years of quiet dedication to serving God's family. Also, we will pray for the repose of the souls that have passed in the last 16 months.

We desperately need new, younger people to step up and join in to help out in our ministries. Please consider sharing your time and talent to come and offer the gifts God gave you back to serve the Lord. We especially need people for Acolytes, Hospitality, and Pastoral Care- this is assisting at the Care Homes. Please call the office if you can help. 306-842-2129.

McKenna Hall is Hiring: a permanent Part-time, Casual Caretaker position. Please apply with a resume, at the church office. For more information call the office @ 306-842-2129.

New Schedules for Hospitality, Screens and Readers have been printed. If you do not have email they will be in the usual spot at the church. Thank you to all our amazing volunteers! Our Church runs so much better with all of you giving so generously of your time!

World Day of Prayer for Grandparents and the Elderly; Sunday, July 25 will be the first World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly. The theme chosen by the Holy Father for the day is “I am with you every day” (cf. Mt 28:20) and intends to express the closeness of the Lord and the Church to the life of each elderly person, especially in this difficult time of pandemic.

Reconciliation and healing for residential school survivors and their communities– financial appeal announced by Saskatchewan bishops:

The five Catholic bishops of Saskatchewan on July 13 released more details about a planned fund-raising appeal entitled “Catholic TRC healing response.” The Saskatchewan bishops said that the appeal’s goal is “to support Residential School survivors and their communities and to engage more deeply in our own ongoing commitment and response to the Truth and Reconciliation process” with funds going to the priorities of healing and reconciliation; cemeteries on the sites of former residential schools; and education and cultural support. “We are collaborating with potential participants, and consulting with Indigenous dialogue partners, including Survivors, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, Chiefs, and other community members. Out of these conversations, each diocese and eparchy will discern and communicate separately how they will proceed with the Appeal in their respective dioceses and communities,” said the bishops. For those who wish to donate immediately or make a long-term pledge, see the online giving options at: <https://dscf.ca/catholic-trc-healing-response>.

Pope Francis’ Monthly Prayer Intentions - July Social Friendship

We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

“He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” Mark 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us to Stewardship? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some “alone” time with God.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit:

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?”

JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share in Stewardship. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!
