Good News Reflection - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus invites His disciples to rest in Him.

This Sunday's Gospel speaks volumes about Jesus' tender care of His apostles as they came bursting in from their first successful missionary excursion. After shadowing Him for so long, Jesus sent His disciples out on their own to preach, teach, heal, and drive out demons. Exhausted and full of excitement, can you imagine all the stories they had to share? Many people followed them and begged for their attention. Jesus loved the passionate hearts of His new missionaries, but He also knew what they needed most before sending them back out to serve. They needed to step away and physically and spiritually rest with Him.

This is a vital lesson for all Christians actively serving in ministry. Like the apostles, we need time with Jesus. No matter how many good works we do, loving God and others through our actions alone is not enough. We must reserve time to nurture our interior life as we seek divine union with Him. Nourishing our souls with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist also brings us oneness with the Lord. Prayer helps us remember that God is in power and control, not ourselves, and builds our trust in Him. It can be unhealthy and even dangerous for our souls if we fail to put our relationship with Christ before everything else. We need personal, contemplative time with Jesus, the lover of our souls.

As the Holy Eucharist is the summit of our faith, our interior life – our personal relationship with God – is the foundation of our faith. It is here that we can truly know and love God. We can also share our joys, sorrows, and questions in prayer. We can ask the Holy Spirit to continue guiding and molding our hearts and actions into the same heart as Jesus. In prayer, we can sit in His presence – in praise, worship, and grace – and listen for God's Holy Will as He speaks to our hearts. This rest and renewal of our souls is like putting gas in our spiritual tanks to fuel more of God's love and action through us. We should prioritize our contemplative life – falling deeper into knowing and loving God – as this is the life we will one day enjoy in heaven. Our active life of love and service will naturally flow from this as we learn to see God more clearly in others.

Questions for Personal Reflection: What are you doing to deepen your interior life with God?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing: In what ways can too much service and not enough prayer time be a problem? How can physical and spiritual rest help your relationship with God and others?

Prayer for Eucharistic Revival:

In the Sacrament of the Eucharist, You, Lord Jesus Christ, make present to us the memorial of Your Passion – the outpouring oblation of love to the Father that brings salvation to the world.

Holy Spirit, stir up and awaken within our parish, and within all the faithful a lively devotion, profound reverence, and deep love for this Sacrament of Sacraments. Grant us the grace to hunger and thirst for You in the Eucharist. Help us to approach You in Holy communion frequently and to receive You worthily and fruitfully.

Strengthen us that we may hear You calling us to the altar, to the tabernacle, and to the monstrance, that we may joyfully bask in Your Eucharistic Presence with all the angels and saints and call all people to faith in the Most Holy Eucharist. May Mary, Your mother and ours, teach us to be docile and humble in the sight of this wondrous Mystery. And may Your Eucharistic Heart, so fully and totally present to us, be ever praised, adored and loved at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even onto the end of time.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 16th Sunday in

Ordinary Time - “He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

Mark 6:31.

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some “alone” time with God.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 17th Sunday in Ordinary

Time - “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?”

John 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

James' Pick of the Week

Eating the sunrise: meditations on the liturgy and our hunger for beauty by Christopher West

What kind of creatures are human beings that we experience hunger not just for physical food, but for beauty? The incomparable Christopher West explores this question in a series of meditations on the Incarnation, the Mass, love, holiness, and more. Using Scripture and the wisdom of the Saints this book will take the reader on a journey through the insatiable hunger inside the human heart for lasting beauty, to arrive at our one hope for fulfillment: an encounter with the Body freely given up for us in the Eucharist. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!

Good News Reflection: 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Miracle of the Loaves and Fishes Points to the Miracle of the Eucharist

The miracle of the loaves and fishes showcases Christ's radical love and compassion toward the people in the crowd who had been listening to Him for hours. Constantly aware of every need of His followers, Jesus knew the people were tired and hungry. He also knew their minds and souls hungered for more time with Him. This moment on the Sea of Galilee offered the perfect opportunity for Jesus to reveal His divine identity as God's Chosen One.

He wanted them to trust Him to care for their needs. He wished to show them He was sent to complete the work of salvation, the one who would usher in the New Kingdom. This supernatural miracle was also a great precursor to His soon-to-be-coming institution of the Holy Eucharist, Christ's ultimate gift of nourishment for our souls. The people were impressed with Jesus' fantastic miracle but still misunderstood His intention. Although he spoke to them at length about the kingdom of heaven, they seemed eager to make Him a king only to serve their political and temporal needs on earth.

The supernatural power of Jesus, as demonstrated in the miracle of the loaves and fishes, is not a distant memory but a living reality in our lives today. For those who dare to believe, Jesus offers His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Eucharist, just as He promised. This Sacrament is not a mere ritual but a transformative experience. It is very real. When we partake of His Body and drink His Blood, the Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – becomes alive within us, shaping us into the image of God, who is pure love, mercy, and compassion.

This ongoing connection with Jesus, as He continues to nourish our souls, not only guides us towards the heavenly kingdom but also equips us to overcome the obstacles of sin, to see Christ in others, and to be Christ to others. This connection is a constant source of reassurance and comfort, reminding us that we are never alone on our spiritual journey. The Spirit of Christ is alive, and He is with us. Expect miracles!

Questions for Personal Reflection

How has God provided for your temporal and spiritual needs in different seasons of your life?

In what areas of your life do you need to trust God more?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

What implication does this miracle story of the loaves and fishes have for families and ministries?

Pray: Lord Jesus, help us prioritize prayer over activity and seek balance in our lives. Amen.
