Good News Reflection: How to make burdens feel light

Does the yoke of Jesus weigh you down or does it feel light? His yoke -- according to what he exemplified with his life -- is servanthood, a ministry that cares for others, a love that makes sacrifices.

We feel weighed down by personal struggles; we have so many of our own crosses to carry and so many people need our attention that we're exhausted from it all. We need a vacation, an escape, time out! So why does Jesus tell us that his yoke is easy? Why does he say that the burdens of servanthood are light?

How can sharing in the ministry of Jesus be restful? When the burdens of life wear us down and tire us out, it's usually because we've taken on more responsibility than God has actually given to us.

Or else it's because we're expending energy trying to get rid of a cross after Jesus has yoked us to it. If the burden leads to burn-out, God lets us get tired, because he's warning us: "Slow down! Simplify your life! Make a change! Spend more time in prayer!"

If it leads to anger and resentment, God is showing us that our selfish desire for an easier life is, in reality, making our lives more difficult.

In other words, when we strain and pull against the yoke -- against our union with Christ -- we suffer from our own mistaken ideas of what we should be doing. It is when we remember that we're yoked to Someone who is infinitely stronger and wiser than we are that the burden becomes light. The yoke becomes a source of joy.

Jesus offers us everything we need for plowing the fields that God assigns to us. When we cooperate with him, the burden is indeed light. We find rest in Jesus and we benefit from his strength. Our anger and resentment and weariness disappear. We experience holy pleasure in our tasks, because we're yoked to the goodness and the energy of Jesus himself.

Questions for Personal Reflection: What are you doing that seems like a good idea but is wearing you out? What part of it is not God's idea for you? What can you do to slow down, simplify, make a change, and become more aware of the strength of Jesus?

Thanks for your Patience; The seating plan we have implemented at this time is following the government's guidelines for Covid 19 so we can follow the guidelines for both social distancing and sanitizing before being occupied again. Of course individual couples and families are allowed to sit together. The problem is we are directed to arrange up to 5 groups of 30 people with 5 meters between each group. Our main objective is to keep everyone safe since our prayers have been answered and we are allowed to gather and receive the Eucharist again. Thank you for your patience and understanding as we try to keep up to the ever changing rules and please thank our volunteers for helping us get through these trying times.

The office is open! Janice and Val invite your calls and visits but please remember to follow the guidelines of social distancing to keep us and you safe.

Prayer for the Spiritual Act of Communion for those shut in at home and unable to receive communion;

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You in my soul. Since I cannot receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

We are in need of new Hospitality ministers for Saturday, 5 PM masses. Please contact the office if you have time to share the gifts God gave you.

Prayer Shawls Do you know of someone who would be comforted by a prayer shawl? Please submit their name to the parish office. If you would like to knit a prayer shawl we have a large supply of wool as well as patterns for the shawls: please stop by the office to pick up supplies.

We are a Scent-Free building.

Our many chemically sensitive parishioners appreciate your thoughtfulness by not wearing perfume, aftershave, scented hand lotion, fragranced hair products, essential oils and/or scented products.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit:

July 5, 2020 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” (Matthew 11:30)

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent, and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

Clergy Sexual Abuse Policy revised June 2020

In September of 2019 the Archdiocese promulgated a new policy and procedure for handling reports of clergy sexual abuse of minors and vulnerable adults. In keeping with the nature of a policy that will need to be regularly updated, and upon reception of various proposals for revising the text, a slightly revised version of the policy and procedure has been posted on the website this week. The policy was drafted in close consultation with victims.

Attached is a copy of the new policy or you can find it on our web site at:
