Harvest Time: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus has a vision in this week's Gospel: Satan falling like lightning from the sky, the enemy vanquished by the missionary preaching of His Church.

Sent out by Jesus to begin gathering the nations into the harvest of divine judgment (see Isaiah 27:12–13; Joel 4:13), the seventy are a sign of the continuing mission of the Church.

Carrying out the work of the seventy, the Church proclaims the coming of God's kingdom. She offers His blessings of peace and mercy to every household on earth, "every town and place He intended to visit."

Our Lord's tone is solemn today, for in the preaching of the Church "the kingdom of God is at hand," the time of decision has come for every person. Those who do not receive His messengers will be doomed like Sodom.

But those who believe will find peace and mercy, protection and nourishment in the bosom of the Church, the Mother Zion we celebrate in this week's beautiful First Reading, the "Israel of God" Paul blesses in this week's Epistle.

The Church is a new family of faith (see Galatians 6:10) in which we receive a new name that will endure forever (see Isaiah 66:22), a name written in heaven.

In this week's Psalm, we sing of God's "tremendous deeds among men" throughout salvation history. But of all the works of God, none has been greater than what He has wrought by the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Changing the sea into dry land was but an anticipation and preparation for our passing over, for what Paul calls the "new creation." And as the Exodus generation was protected in a wilderness of serpents and scorpions (see Deuteronomy 8:15), He has given His Church power now over "the full force of the enemy." Nothing will harm us as we make our way through the wilderness of this world, awaiting the Master of the harvest, awaiting the day when all on earth will shout joyfully to the Lord and sing praise to the glory of His name.

Heavenly Father,

direct your healing toward our loved ones who suffer and who believe that you can and will restore them to full health.
We call them by name: and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.
Our condolences to the family and friends of those who have passed away.
The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you.

The Ordinary Jubilee of the Year 2025 is an opportunity for all people to enter into a pilgrimage of hope. Whether we celebrate locally (in our dioceses, cathedrals or Canada's National Shrines) or make a pilgrimage to Rome, we are called to search for signs of hope and be signs of hope in our families, for our neighbours, the imprisoned, the sick and dying, the young and old.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: July 6, 2025 – 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time "He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the labourers are few...'" LUKE 10:2
As Catholics, we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given "charisms," otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit, to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy, and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

James' Pick of the Week

A Father who keeps His promises: God's covenant love in Scripture by Scott Hahn - Scott Hahn, one of the most powerful Catholic apologists of our times, reflects upon God's unchanging covenant love revealed to us in Scripture. Despite our faults and failings, God patiently reaches out to us across the centuries restoring us into relationship with Him. Beginning with Adam and Eve and continuing to the coming of Christ and the birth of the Catholic Church, we learn how the patient love of the Father in the Bible is the same persistent love He has for you today. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!

Parish Picture Directory – The Parish Picture directory is now ready for pick up. Please, pick up your copy during the week from the office. There are a few extra copies on sale for parishioners who may have missed getting their pictures in.

Prayer: My glorious Lord, You have called countless people to Yourself, formed them by Your grace, bestowed Your gifts upon them and sent them forth to touch many minds and hearts. Please use me, dear Lord, to accomplish the task that You wish to entrust to me. Form me, use me and send me forth as You have done with countless others before me. Jesus, I trust in You. Amen

THIS WEEK ON FORMED:

1. Saints Benedict and Scholastica - A pair of holy twins, a cave, and a group of naughty monks... this is the story of Saint Benedict and Saint Scholastica.

2. Saint Benedict | Catholic Saints - Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Ben Akers discuss the Rule of St. Benedict as it applies to daily life.

3. Saint Maria Goretti: Fourteen Flowers of Pardon - Learn more about the holy life and martyrdom of St. Maria Goretti in this moving documentary. In particular, the film highlights her ultimate act of love: forgiving her murderer on her deathbed.

CWL Giving Campaign: We invite everyone to join us by contributing. We are currently seeking donations of CANNED FRUITS & VEGETABLES AND SMALL BAGS OF PASTA.

CWL "TALKING POINTS" SOLIDARITY We are all sisters and brothers who actively work for the common good. Through the Catholic Women's League, members are invited to build relationships – to understand what life is like for others. Join us in solidarity as we journey towards peace and justice.
