14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Good News Reflection - The Christian call of collaboration

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus tells his disciples to ask the "Master" (God the Father) of the "harvest" (conversion to Christ) to send out more "laborers" (evangelizers). And in the next breath, he tells them that they are the laborers and that they must get busy: "Go on your way," he says.

When you think of evangelizers in the Catholic Church, who comes to mind first? Most of us think of priests, and we all know that we need more priests. New vocations in Western societies are still way too few to compensate for the elderly ones who are retiring and dying.

Do you pray for an increase of vocations? Good, but that's only part of what Jesus is asking us to do. "Go on your way," he says to all of us, "and use your gifts, your talents, and your skills to assist in the harvest.

Jesus has always been collaborative. The number of laborers for the mission of the Church will only be sufficient when we all join the effort -- clergy, religious, and laity -- working together with our separate and unique talents and skills, humbly assisting each other as members of the same team.

To reach this sufficiency, many of us have to overcome the "someone else will take care of it" attitude. And some have to overcome the desire for perfection, the "I can take care of it better myself" attitude, which robs others of the opportunity to serve.

Many of us need to overcome the fear of losing control, the "I must tell others how to do their job" attitude, which chases away some very talented laborers. Jesus said we should carry no supplies into ministry; in other words: We should accept whatever is offered to us.

Our prayers for an increase of consecrated vocations are answered from within collaborative ministry. Clergy and religious are called to be good role models, which will attract new vocations, but the laity are called to serve God with the same zeal and holiness that we expect from priests, because out of families who serve come the holy priests and religious who serve.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Which ministries in your parish and diocese are lacking sufficient laborers? If you're not already busy in the work of God's kingdom, how can you use your talents to help there? If you're already serving enthusiastically, how can you encourage others to get involved?

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Good News Reflection - Enough love to heal the world

The opposite of love is not hate. It's apathy: ignoring a need, not caring, and doing nothing when there is something we can do to relieve suffering. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus gives us the Parable of the Good Samaritan to explain that if we love God with our whole heart, our whole being, our whole strength, and our whole mind, we naturally care about other people, even those who are strangers, even those whom we're "not supposed to" like, and even when it costs us something personally.

Many of the problems that exist in our world today are allowed to continue because too many of us Christians -- who through Christ have the power to change the world -- do not care enough to sacrifice our time and personal agendas to get involved. Much of the suffering that's endured in our families and workplaces and parishes would be stopped or relieved if enough Christians loved God enough to care about others enough to risk the cost of intervening.

How much do you love God? The answer lies in how much you're willing to sacrifice for the sake of loving others, which is the definition of love that Jesus taught us with this parable and with his life.

None of us love God perfectly yet. Purgatory will be a time of painfully regretting our lack of love, while eagerly improving our love for others so we can enter into the fullness of God's love in heaven. Until then, we have daily opportunities, here and now, to purify our lives less painfully. Daily we're given tests to improve how well we love others.

So daily ask the Holy Spirit, your teacher, your empowerer, your source of holiness, to help you become more like Christ. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you love all others as Christ loves them. By doing this spiritual exercise consistently, you will receive a new joy and an enlivened passion in dealing with others. You will feel greater love for God and you will experience his love for you much more intimately.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Whom do you pass by and ignore when you see suffering? Is there anyone you've recently walked away from because you didn't want to give up something (perhaps your time, pride, prejudice, feeling of inadequacy, resentment or unforgiveness)? Take it to the Sacrament of Confession to receive God's grace and help in loving others more fully.

An evening with the Saints on Signal Hill

The Spiritual and Adult Faith Formation Committee invites everyone to gather at the Sacred Heart Statue on Signal Hill (adjacent to the Arts Center) on Sunday, July 21, 7-8pm for an evening with the Saints. We will be reading brief biographies of Saints Mary Magdalene, Camillus, James, Junipero Serra and Augustine Zhao Rong. All have feast days in July. Afterwards we will recite the Rosary and enjoy some snacks and refreshments. Bring your own lawn chair!

Thank you for all who volunteered in or supported our parish Fair Booth this year! It was a resounding success and we are so grateful for all of the work that was put into it. Thank you especially to Angelo for his dedication and organization in running the booth!

Eucharistic Ministers stations – Due to a lack of ministry volunteers, there will only be three stations for the Bread and Wine at Mass, rather than four. Father Francis will direct the changes at Mass. Thank you for your patience and understanding with this change.

Every Sunday bulletin lists the Mass times for the weekday Masses, but on occasion it is necessary to announce a change in Mass time, or have a cancellation altogether. If you would like an email and/or text message sent to you advising of any change in Mass times, please send your contact information to stvincent@sasktel.net.

Updates for the Summer

Over the summer, we will be publishing the bulletins only once every two weeks. Please submit any announcements sooner rather than later to ensure that it can be added to the bulletin in time. Bulletins over the summer will be for the following weekends:

July 6/7 and July 13/14 • July 20/21 and July 27 / 28
Aug. 3/3 and Aug. 10/11 • Aug. 17/18 and Aug. 24/25

Our choirs will also be taking a break over the summer, and there will only be music at one of the Sunday Masses every weekend. If you are wanting to get involved in music ministry, this could be your chance to get started, by filling in for one of the times that we won't have any music. Please contact the parish office if interested.

There will be no Children's Liturgy over the summer.

There will not be anyone scheduled to run the projector over the summer, but there will always be a PowerPoint made anyway. If you are at Mass, please consider stepping up and running the projector screens. If you don't know how to, stop into the office during the week and we can give you a quick tutorial.

Protocol Committee – Emails (with instructions) have been sent out to all ministry volunteers who need to submit an updated criminal record check, in order to comply with our Archdiocesan protocols. Please check the basket in the front foyer for a letter if you are a volunteer for any ministry, but do not have an email. There may be a letter that you will have to bring to the police station to receive your criminal record check.

Love Out Loud (LOL) – The Archdiocese of Regina provides a fun and faith-filled experience at their summer Leadership Camps. These are for youth going into Grade 7, all the way up to going into their 1st year of university! Our parish will be able to offer partial financial aid for the registration costs. For more information, please see the parish Facebook page or website, or call the parish office at 306-842-2129.

The Stewardship Committee would like to borrow old copies of the 2016, 2017 and 2018 St. Michael School yearbooks. You could leave them at the parish office and they will be returned. To learn more about this endeavor or to help out the committee, please contact Tom Schuck at 306-842-6410 or 891-9192.
