Good News Reflection: Jesus Gives Us His Very Self in the Holy Eucharist

How humbling it is that Jesus, our promised Savior, our Emmanuel, fulfills His promise to save and be with us always in the gift of the Holy Eucharist! Today, we gratefully celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which unites the feast of the Eucharistic sacrifice, the feast of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, and the feast of the Real Presence of Jesus in this Sacrament. Replacing the Old Covenant with the New and eternal Covenant, Jesus transformed the Jewish Passover by offering His own Body and Blood to be poured out for all to take away the sins of the world.

Are you amazed by the miracle of transubstantiation, the process by which the bread and wine of the Eucharist are transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus after the priest says the words of Consecration? Pope St. John Paul II sought to rekindle “Eucharistic amazement” when he wrote his beautiful encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia (the Church of the Eucharist.) I highly recommend it if you have not read it before or if it's been a while. Released in 2003, this critical Church document is excellent and will deepen your understanding and appreciation of the Eucharist, enriching your spiritual journey. It is also very rich in meaning for today's world.

Jesus modeled what it means to surrender to God's Holy Will when He sacrificed His whole life for the good and love of others, including us. He suffered and gave the ultimate Sacrifice of His life on the Cross. He loved us enough to share His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Sacrament of the Eucharist so we would never be alone and that we, too, might share in His Kingdom here on earth as we journey to the Kingdom of God in Heaven. As the source and summit of our Christian faith and spiritual lives, Jesus in the Eucharist provides a way for us to unite our sacrifices and sufferings to His in an offering of charity and service to others. May all who receive the Bread of Life in the Holy Eucharist become one body by the Holy Spirit and become a living sacrifice, united with Jesus Christ.

Questions for Personal Reflection: How does the Eucharist nourish and keep your Christian life healthy? In what ways have you offered your personal life as a living sacrifice enjoined with Christ's? How have you encountered the Real Presence of Christ in Adoration?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing: As a sign of Christ's love, how can the Eucharist help us minister to the poor and outcast? As a sign of unity, how can the Eucharist help us embrace those different from us with open hearts? As a bond of charity, how can the Eucharist help us be living signs of Christ's presence and love in our troubled world?

Knowing the Catholic Faith: Wednesdays 7:00pm
 Our topic this week will be, "The Pascal Mystery"
 Jesus offered His life as the new Passover Lamb for our salvation.

Angelo will need many helpers at McKenna hall for the Oil and Gas Show this week. Helpers are needed from June 3-6. Please call Mckenna 842-4481 if you can help, with preparation, clean up or delivery.

The Fair runs July 4-6, 2024! Shift work sheets are up in the Church foyer and again we will need many workers beginning July 2 - 7. Now is the time for high school kids to get some volunteer hours and find out that it is a blast working the booth! Donations of pies will be accepted July 2nd or 3rd. No cream pies can be accepted.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: Pentecost Sunday. Feast of Corpus Christi. "Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - Mark 14:23. Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means we offer our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Pastoral Care Ministry brings comfort through visiting of the sick and elderly, those in distress and all persons in need. The committee assists the pastor in fulfilling the needs of those who are suffering. The services are provided by teams of volunteers; these volunteers have an ability to show compassion and loving concern for people in the context of our Christian faith. This Ministry team takes Communion to those who are sick at home or in the hospital. Some of the members provide a Lay Service at care homes, and some provide assistance in transporting care home residents to Masses and Communion services that are scheduled weekly, biweekly and monthly. If you would like to be part of this Ministry please call the parish office. We are in great need of volunteers!

K of C Call for Nominations: The Knights of Columbus Council 1731, Weyburn, is seeking to fill executive positions for the upcoming 2024-25 Columbian year. If you are a member of the council and wish to serve on the executive, please contact local K of C trustees Brother Ron Klein at 306-861-3134 or Brother Aime Isabey at 306-861-3535. Incumbents are willing to remain in their current executive positions but there are several executive positions needing to be filled. New or former executive members are asked to step forward. If voting is required, it will take place at the General K of C Meeting, June 25 th , 2024. All men are invited to join, or rejoin, the KofC. Knights will be available after the Jun 1st & 2nd Masses to speak to you.

Thank you from Rita Wanner and her family to the parishioners who so generously supported them in so many ways, the ministrations at the funeral, K of C, CWL, donations of food and funds, and your prayers and the love you showed for us and for Jim. Thank you.

JAMES PICK OF THE WEEK

The prodigal Church: restoring Catholic tradition in an age of deception by Brandon McGinley.

Since the 1960s the Catholic Church has diluted her traditions in order to please contemporary culture, resulting in a loss of moral authority just when the world needs it most.

This book is our roadmap to renewal for families, schools, parishes, and the institutional Church. We can complain and despair or wish for an unrealistically romanticized Catholic yesteryear, or we can seize the opportunity to tell the world that the Catholic Church is the means to bringing heaven to earth. With Christ, we have everything we need, but we need the confidence to bring His truth to the world. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!

CWL "TALKING POINTS"

COMPASSION Do you recognize the human dignity in all people? Do you feel motivated to do something to help others? Catholic Women's League members embark on many projects that directly impact those who are disadvantaged in society. How can you help? Become a member and be part of the solution.

Flower Bed Care Needed; The flower beds are planted and they will need watering, weeding and many hands to keep them looking beautiful! If you are someone who would like to help with this, please call the office and we will start a summer schedule. 306-842-2129.

Pray: Loving Jesus, open our hearts to savor the wonder and joy of Your most precious gift, the Most Holy Eucharist. Amen.
