June 8 & 9 – Pentecost Sunday

Good News Reflection - Partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit

John 20:19-23 is one of two possible Gospel readings for Pentecost Sunday. In it, Jesus says "peace be with you" twice. First, he gives his disciples the gift of peace so that they can take their focus off of their worries to look at him and recognize him standing in their midst.

Then he says it again while giving them the vocation of continuing the mission that he had started. This time, "peace be with you" is to be the fruit of a life lived in the Holy Spirit while serving God for the sake of the world.

It's one thing to feel peaceful because we know that Jesus is with us. It's quite a challenge, though, to feel peaceful when telling others about Jesus, for we feel inadequate and overwhelmed, and we're afraid of being persecuted and rejected. That's why he gave us his Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit gives us whatever we need for doing the work that the Father asks of us, and thus we are not really inadequate nor does God fail to comfort us when people reject us.

One of the fruits of partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit is an inner peace that does not depend on what happens, nor on what others do or don't do to us, nor on how they respond to the Good News that we share with them. Peace is the result of being alive in the Spirit. Peace is the Spirit's activity within us.

At the end of this Gospel passage, Jesus gives the Apostles (the first Catholic priests) the authority to forgive sins as surrogates of his divine presence. He is instituting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which provides to us Jesus himself in the form of the human priest.

The same forgiving power of the Spirit enables all of us to experience peace in a sinful, tumultuous world. Even when forgiving is most difficult, in the Spirit of Christ we can do it. We can forgive those who hurt us, even if they never repent. And this is what restores our peace.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What is causing you to feel unpeaceful? Whom do you need to forgive in those situations? If you've forgiven everyone and you still lack peace, do you need to forgive yourself? Or God? Consider going to a spiritual director or counselor for help in finding all the peace that Jesus wants you to have.

We want to celebrate your milestones! Send us the dates of milestone Birthdays or Anniversaries of either you or your loved ones, and we will announce the special occasion in our parish bulletin!

We are a Scent-Free building.

Our many chemically sensitive parishioners appreciate your thoughtfulness by not wearing perfume, aftershave, scented hand lotion, fragranced hair products, essential oils and/or scented products.

There are several open spots on our various schedules for different Mass ministries. For most schedules, the commitment is only about once a month; for some even less. If you are able to volunteer, please consider lending a hand. Our church choirs would also appreciate extra voices in their ranks, for those that are more musically inclined. Please contact the parish office to express your interest!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.” (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth.

Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions.

Forget Annual Pilgrimage at Our Lady of La Salette Shrine in Forget, SK will be this weekend on Sunday, June 9th. St. Vincent de Paul Parish Trivia

The answer is: D

Our church began having a weekly mass on Saturdays at 5pm on May 6, 1972, replacing the Sunday at 5pm mass.

Make sure to watch the projector screens before Mass to see next week's question!

The Baby Bottle Campaign is here! This campaign is run by OptionS Pregnancy Center, whose vision is to bring compassionate help and hope to women, men, and teens who are unprepared for pregnancy; to present sexual abstinence as a positive lifestyle for singles; to provide healing and restoration to those who have been hurt by abortion; and to present Jesus as Saviour and Lord.

To support this campaign, please pick up an empty baby bottle on your way out of the church. You can fill it with cash or a cheque, and then return the bottle to the church by Father's Day, on Sunday, June 16th. Please do not return the bottle to the same bin that you pick them up from, but return it to the parish office. In the event that the office is closed, there will be a basket for the bottles by the office door. This is the biggest fundraiser of the year for OptionS, and the finances and prayer support that they receive enables them to reach more people in our city and province during their times of need.

If you or someone you know is interested in any of OptionS' programs, or interested in volunteering, please give them a call at 306-757-1371.

Funeral Lunch Groups: The following groups are next for upcoming funerals: Donna & Renee, Shirley & Theresa, and Fran.

Please note that there is a change in Mass time for this Friday, June 14th. The Mass will be at 11:40am instead of the regular 12:10pm.

There is a special collection this weekend, on June 8-9 (Pentecost Sunday). The collection is for Catholic Missions in Canada, and there is a special envelope for the collection in the donation envelope boxes.

The Archdiocese of Regina has three deacons that will be ordained to the priesthood. Deacon Parker Love, Deacon Anthony Tran Phung, and Deacon Van Chinh Vu will all be ordained on Friday, June 14th at 7pm. This celebration will be held in the Holy Rosary Cathedral in Regina, and there will be a reception to follow.

The CWL Executive meeting will be held on Monday, June 10th at 7pm. The General meeting will be on Monday, June 17th – beginning with Mass at 5:30pm – followed by an always delicious potluck supper and meeting to follow! Please plan to join us and bring a dish to share!
