Good News Reflection: The Transfiguration for your life today

Atop Mount Tabor, the pure light of Christ was revealed, as seen in this Gospel reading. The Father said, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him."

The transfiguration is repeated every time we listen to him and allow our faith to be enlightened more today than it was yesterday. Now it is we who are transfigured! We are transformed into our true identity. What is our true identity? It's our innermost being, which was created in the image of God and baptized into the likeness of God.

We enjoy life much more when we live according to our true identity. For example, how do you feel when you're impatient? Not so good, right? That's because God is patient (see 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 for a description of his true identity and yours), and when we are patient, we are much happier.

During Lent, by humbly examining how Christ-like we are and repenting from our sins, we let his light consume the darkness within us.

Jesus left his mountaintop experience to fulfill his calling. Following Christ, we too leave our mountaintops to do what God has gifted us to do. Although there is, as the reading from Timothy points out, hardship in living a holy life, we can be comforted by the fact that after every Calvary there is always an Easter. We can rely on "the strength that comes from God."

Listen. Can you hear what God is saying about you? It's the same words he spoke about Jesus on Mount Tabor: "This is my beloved child; listen to him/her." What are you saying as Christ's partner in ministry?

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What's going on in your life that you would like Jesus to transfigure? What will you do this week to expose it to Jesus' healing light?

Not only did they feed the majority of the 520 students and 50 plus staff, but we were able to freeze meals for those students who miss breakfast, have no lunch or just need a snack to get them through the day. THANK YOU also to the volunteer servers who come to the school for these brunches and all the hot lunches! You are all the true meaning of Stewardship. If you could spare some time to help with hot lunches we would welcome more help. Many Blessings St. Michael School SCC.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: 2nd Sunday of Lent

“Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.”
(Genesis 12:1)

God calls all of us to leave behind our old ways and to follow Him, placing our complete trust in Him. Some of the old ways that we may have to struggle to leave behind might be materialism, selfishness, and greed. Yet God promises to show us a new land and a better way to live. Remember what St. Teresa of Calcutta said, “God does not call us to be successful, God calls us to be faithful.”

McKenna Hall Catering is in need of people that will do phoning for the various functions at the hall. We are down from eight to two phoning coordinators. We'd like to thank Evelyn Porte, who recently resigned, for her years of service. Angelo does put sign-up sheets at the back of the church, to cut back on phone calls. Any amount of help is appreciated. For more info contact Angelo 306-848-3586

Sandy Bay Donations: If you are looking for a charity to donate to during Lent, young mothers in Sandy Bay are in need of Enfalac and disposable diapers for their babies. Because these items are expensive, perhaps 2-3 friends could pool together to buy them. The young mothers would be extremely grateful.

Eucharistic Miracles by Joan Carrol Cruz ;

Have you ever doubted the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist? Take a historical tour across the centuries to discover how God has provided visible proof of the reality of the Real Presence. Follow the investigations into incorruptible hosts, consecrated hosts becoming actual human flesh on the altar, and other miraculous events. Even for firm believers in the Real Presence this book will only strengthen what we as Catholics know to be true: the Real Presence is for real! Now available in the Parish Library

K of C Weyburn Bingo Concession: Emily and Larry Stadler have decided to retire from operating the Concession! Anyone interested in taking over may call Emily (306-861-0579) to discuss time and financial commitment, and menu items, pricing, and sourcing. She says it's not very lucrative, but it is lots of fun, and you get to be out in the public."
