Good News Reflection

Today we encounter with humility true expressions of stewardship and faith in the narratives of the widows presented in the readings. These women, who live lives of poverty, marginal to their communities, become the unlikely examples for us of generosity and authentic response to God. In Mark's gospel as Jesus sits and observes the crowd depositing money into the treasury, he draws the attention of the disciples to the offering of the widow, who similar to the widow of Zarephath in 1 Kings, gives her last, her all and her only means of support. The poor widow has put in more because she gave everything demonstrating true discipleship for it would come at a cost to her, a level of sacrifice not equaled by the gifts given by others from out of their surplus. The widows offer completely out of trust, confident that what they give could be used by God. They give out of faith that our merciful Lord would continue to provide for them. In these selfless acts of self-giving we recognize a foreshadowing of the path of Christ, who would offer himself completely for us, for our salvation.

True stewardship emerges out of the deep appreciation that all we have and all we are is gifted to us by God and belongs to Him. We are called to give completely of ourselves, of our time and of our talents in service to God through our service to others, from a heart of gratitude, joy and love. To not be afraid, but to go and do the will of the Lord. Through our contribution to the Archbishop's Appeal, we humbly give back a portion of what the Lord has blessed us with, knowing that regardless of how little we sometimes feel we have to offer of our talents, time or monetary support, what we have to offer will be received with abundant gratitude and can and will be used to continue doing the work of our Lord. May we approach our merciful God with hands that are emptied because all that we have been given has already been given on to others

Bulletin Bit – 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living. ” (Mark 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

- Prayers for the dearly departed at local cemeteries

Annual Appeal

Jesus encourages us, through the gospel, to trust God with all our hearts, to persevere and believe that good will come in the end. Giving with our hearts is trusting in God's providence, knowing that He will take care of us. Thank you very much to those who have already given. We are very grateful. For those still undecided, please prayerfully consider making a donation this year

During the month of November you are invited to remember the faithful departed that are close to your heart by CLEARLY PRINTING their name on the provided sheets on the back table in the foyer. Ten names will be read at each weekend Mass in November. Please show consideration to others by only signing up once. This allows others a chance to have their loved one's name read also.

Parish Library Update:

The devil in the city of Angels: my encounters with the diabolical by Jesse Romero

In his decades long career as a Los Angeles County Sheriff, Jesse Romero encountered murderers, drug addicts, serial killers, and the criminally insane. As a faithful Catholic he recognized the signs of diabolical activity in the crimes being committed up to and including demonic possession. In this book he describes his experiences and tells readers about the spiritual and physical dangers of opening oneself to the occult. Reader discretion is advised. Now available at the Parish Library.
