Cup of Salvation: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The sons of Zebedee hardly know what they're asking in today's Gospel. They are thinking in terms of how the Gentiles rule, of royal privileges and honors.

But the road to Christ's kingdom is by way of His Cross. To share in His glory, we must be willing to drink the cup that He drinks.

The cup is an Old Testament image for God's judgment. The wicked would be made to drink this cup in punishment for their sins (see Psalm 75:9; Jeremiah 25:15, 28; Isaiah 51:17). But Jesus has come to drink this cup on behalf of all humanity. He has come to be baptized—which means plunged or immersed—into the sufferings we all deserve for our sins (compare Luke 12:50).

In this He will fulfill the task of Isaiah's suffering servant, whom we read about in today's First Reading.

Like Isaiah's servant, the Son of Man will give His life as an offering for sin, as once Israel's priests offered sacrifices for the sins of the people (see Leviticus 5:17–19).

Jesus is the heavenly high priest of all humanity, as we hear in today's Epistle. Israel's high priests offered the blood of goats and calves in the temple sanctuary. But Jesus entered the heavenly sanctuary with His own blood (see Hebrews 9:12).

And by bearing our guilt and offering His life to do the will of God, Jesus ransomed "the many"—paying the price to redeem humanity from spiritual slavery to sin and death.

He has delivered us from death, as we rejoice in today's Psalm.

We need to hold fast to our confession of faith, as today's Epistle exhorts us. We must look upon our trials and sufferings as our portion of the cup He promised to those who believe in Him (see Colossians 1:24). We must remember that we have been baptized into His passion and death (see Romans 6:3).

In confidence, let us approach the altar today, the throne of grace, at which we drink the cup of His saving blood (see Mark 14:23–24).

Archbishop's Appeal Reflection (Mark 10:35-45):

Jesus redefines greatness by teaching that true leadership is found in service to others. He calls us to be servants, just as He came to serve. This principle is foundational to our faith and communal life. We must strive to reflect Christ's humility and dedication, fostering a community where service is the hallmark of greatness. Through your support of the Archbishop's Appeal, there are many ways this is lived out, whether it is through participating in the Lay Formation Program, the youth leadership opportunities, or the many ways in which outreach and advocacy for those on the margins is supported. Look for ways to foster this servant leadership in your own lives and parishes this week.

Prayer of Intercession:

That we may we fully experience our unity as one family, united in the heart of Christ, growing together in love and deepening our connections with one another.

Ordinary Time:

Isaiah 53:10-11
Psalm: 33:4-5,18-20,22
Hebrews 4:14-16
Mark 10:35-45

who believe that you can and will restore them to full health.

We call them by name: Janice Vilcu, Anthony Delanoy, Amanda Kopec, Mary Javis, Phyllis Borys, Morley Seitz, Sonja LaBlanc, Pat Benning and all those facing illness or any of life's struggles.

Our condolences to the families and friends of all the dearly departed. The thoughts and prayers of your church family are with you.

Parish Ministries: You are encouraged to share your talent by joining one or more of our many ministries here at our parish. The volunteers that help at mass on Saturday mornings at Tatagwa View are in desperate need of help. Their numbers are dwindling but responsibilities are not. Also, help is needed in many areas in the parish. Please, prayerfully consider where you can be of service. Call the office to sign up.

Collection for Sandy Bay: We are once more collecting donations for Sandy Bay. They are in need of winter clothing (sweaters, boots, coats, mitts toques, etc.) and, of course, groceries. Target delivery date is early. November so please have your donations to the church before November 2. It will be most helpful if items brought in are still in fairly good condition. God blesses those who share resources with a heartfelt spirit.

Parish Picture Directory: The photographers will be in Weyburn possibly Nov. 29 & 30. If you were unable to attend the first session and wish to have photos taken, please, let us know at the office. Phone (306)842-2129 or drop in and sign up. If there is enough interest, we will book the days and contact you. 😊

Children's Liturgy: Children's Liturgy happens at 10AM Mass. These sessions help children to experience the word of God in a way that makes sense to them. For this ministry, we need adult volunteers and students grade 7 and higher to help implement the lessons. Please, call the office to sign up.

Welcome Visitors and New Parishioners!

Our Parish family warmly welcomes new members. Please fill out a New Parishioner form at your earliest convenience.

The forms are located on a table in the foyer!

Stewardship Bulletin Bit:

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

James’ Pick of the Week

Science, reason, and faith: discovering the Bible by Fr. Robert Spitzer.

Author Fr. Robert Spitzer explores the Bible and the intersection of three realms that the secular world tells us are separate and incompatible. The book tackles questions about the evidence for God, the historicity of the Gospels, the miracles of Jesus, the Resurrection, the problem of evil and even the meaning of life through the integration of science, reason and faith. Truth is not just the object of science and reason but the reality that animates the mysterious and loving power of faith. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!

Join us in supporting those in need! The CWL invites all parishioners to join us in monthly donation drives for our local Salvation Army. For the month of October, we are requesting HOUSEHOLD CLEANING PRODUCTS (The smaller sizes are preferred and must be alcohol free) A donation box is labeled and located in the church foyer. We are very appreciative of your support in this service project!
