27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 5th & 6th, 2024

Sunday Reflection – 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

What God Has Joined: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-seventh Sunday Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a trick question.

The "lawfulness" of divorce in Israel was never an issue. Moses had long ago allowed it (see Deuteronomy 24:1–4). But Jesus points His enemies back before Moses, to "the beginning," interpreting the text we hear in today's First Reading.

Divorce violates the order of creation, He says. Moses permitted it only as a concession to the people's "hardness of heart"—their inability to live by God's covenant Law. But Jesus comes to fulfill the Law, to reveal its true meaning and purpose, and to give people the grace to keep God's commands.

Marriage, He reveals, is a sacrament, a divine, life-giving sign. Through the union of husband and wife, God intended to bestow His blessings on the human family — making it fruitful, multiplying it until it filled the earth (see Genesis 1:28).

That's why today's Gospel moves so easily from a debate about marriage to Jesus' blessing of children. Children are blessings the Father bestows on couples who walk in His ways, as we sing in today's Psalm.

Marriage also is a sign of God's new covenant. As today's Epistle hints, Jesus is the new Adam — made a little lower than the angels, born of a human family (see Romans 5:14; Psalm 8:5–7). The Church is the new Eve, the "woman" born of Christ's pierced side as He hung in the sleep of death on the Cross (see John 19:34; Revelation 12:1–17).

Through the union of Christ and the Church as "one flesh," God's plan for the world is fulfilled (see Ephesians 5:21–32). Eve was "mother of all the living" (see Genesis 3:20). And in Baptism, we are made sons and daughters of the Church, children of the Father, heirs of the eternal glory He intended for the human family in the beginning.

The challenge for us is to live as children of the kingdom, growing up ever more faithful in our love and devotion to the ways of Christ and the teachings of His Church.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit:

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (Genesis 2:19)

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

James' Pick of the Week

The end of woman: how smashing the patriarchy has destroyed us by Carrie Gress.

After decades of radical feminism, women today are more depressed, anxious, medicated, and victimized with unprecedented levels of divorce, venereal disease, human trafficking and abortion. We can't even define what a woman is due to the transgender movement. Feminism has abolished women. Only a rediscovery of true womanhood and motherhood can rescue our society. Author Carrie Gress argues women will only find happiness by making peace with men, with children, with God, and, with themselves. Now available in the Parish Library. Pro Libris!

Join us in supporting those in need! The CWL invites all parishioners to join us in monthly donation drives for our local Salvation Army. For the month of October, we are requesting HOUSEHOLD CLEANING PRODUCTS (The smaller sizes are preferred and must be alcohol free) A donation box is labeled and located in the church foyer. We are very appreciative of your support in this service project!
