Good News Reflection: Partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit

John 20:19-23 is one of two possible Gospel readings for Pentecost Sunday. In it, Jesus says "peace be with you" twice. First, he gives his disciples the gift of peace so that they can take their focus off of their worries to look at him and recognize him standing in their midst.

Then he says it again while giving them the vocation of continuing the mission that he had started. This time, "peace be with you" is to be the fruit of a life lived in the Holy Spirit while serving God for the sake of the world.

It's one thing to feel peaceful because we know that Jesus is with us. It's quite a challenge, though, to feel peaceful when telling others about Jesus, for we feel inadequate and overwhelmed, and we're afraid of being persecuted and rejected. That's why he gave us his Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit gives us whatever we need for doing the work that the Father asks of us, and thus we are not really inadequate nor does God fail to comfort us when people reject us.

One of the fruits of partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit is an inner peace that does not depend on what happens, nor on what others do or don't do to us, nor on how they respond to the Good News that we share with them. Peace is the result of being alive in the Spirit. Peace is the Spirit's activity within us.

At the end of this Gospel passage, Jesus gives the Apostles (the first Catholic priests) the authority to forgive sins as surrogates of his divine presence. He is instituting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which provides to us Jesus himself in the form of the human priest.

The same forgiving power of the Spirit enables all of us to experience peace in a sinful, tumultuous world. Even when forgiving is most difficult, in the Spirit of Christ we can do it. We can forgive those who hurt us, even if they never repent. And this is what restores our peace.

Questions for Personal Reflection: What is causing you to feel unpeaceful? Whom do you need to forgive in those situations? If you've forgiven everyone and you still lack peace, do you need to forgive yourself? Or God? Consider going to a spiritual director or counselor for help in finding all the peace that Jesus wants you to have.

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing: Give an example of how peace is a fruit of life in the Holy Spirit. What other fruits come from depending upon God and partnering with his Spirit?

We call them by name: Michael VanBetuw, Lawrence Fellner, Darwin Thiel, Jesse Sidloski and all those facing an illness or any of life's struggles.

Summer Bible Study: 1st Corinthians

Join us this summer for a 10 part Bible Study of St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. First Corinthians is one of the most important letters of the New Testament and we hear from it regularly during the cycle of readings at Mass. The letter covers topics such as the Eucharist, purgatory, immoralities and divisions plaguing the Church, as well as practical advice for living amongst a pagan culture hostile to the Gospel. Sessions will be every Wednesday, from June 29-Aug 31, at 7:00pm in the Church basement. Workbooks and pre-registration are required, cost is $10 per participant in order to assist with the cost of supplies. Please see the registration sheet near the front doors of the Church. Hope to see you there! A project of the Spiritual and Faith Formation Committee. See the sign-up sheet in the church foyer.

We would like to celebrate your Special Anniversaries and Birthdays with you! Let us know if you are having a special birthday and we will announce it the bulletin. If you are having a special anniversary this year, 25, 40, 50, 55, 60 and up, we will announce them in the bulletin and have a celebration in September.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit: Pentecost Sunday "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John14:26). The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affect your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

The Knights of Columbus, Bishop Klein Assembly will be awarding a one-time University entrance scholarship of $1000 again this year.
